I really need to stop and think where I am going. But I'm afraid to stop. The rules may change and the move I want to make might be illegal. If only there were signs to tell me where to go and what to do instead of where NOT to go and what NOT to do. There is nothing as impossible to find as a direction, either physically or spiritually.

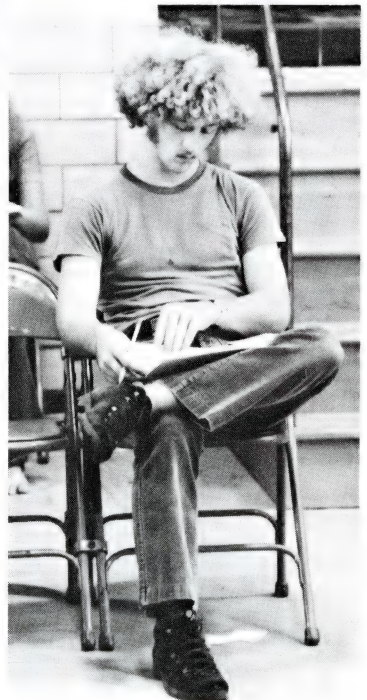

Registration . . . Less Hell Than

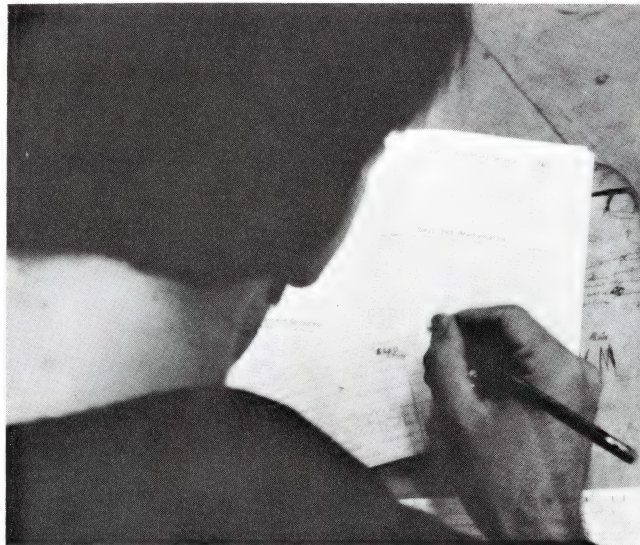

"... confusing. It could have been better."

"... great compared to when I was a freshman. I had to stand in line for six hours."

"... terrible. It was hell."

Last Year?

"I hated it. I had a bad appointment."

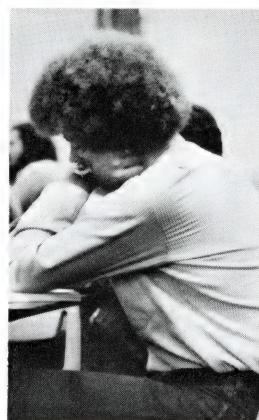

"The system was better."

"At least, it wasn't a rat race."

What do you think?

Classrooms are extensions of the "educated" who are reaching out to students. Many times the incredible emptiness of some classes turns students off to such an extent that interest in learning is lost. In order to combat these frustrating situations many are turning to courses offering more self-participation. Students are able to get into classes which require a creation from the mind or hand of the individual. Education is of value only when the student receives satisfaction from expressing himself through his learning and not sleeping through a lecture.

Culture is Where you Find it at E.T.S.U.

Student on the Fringe?

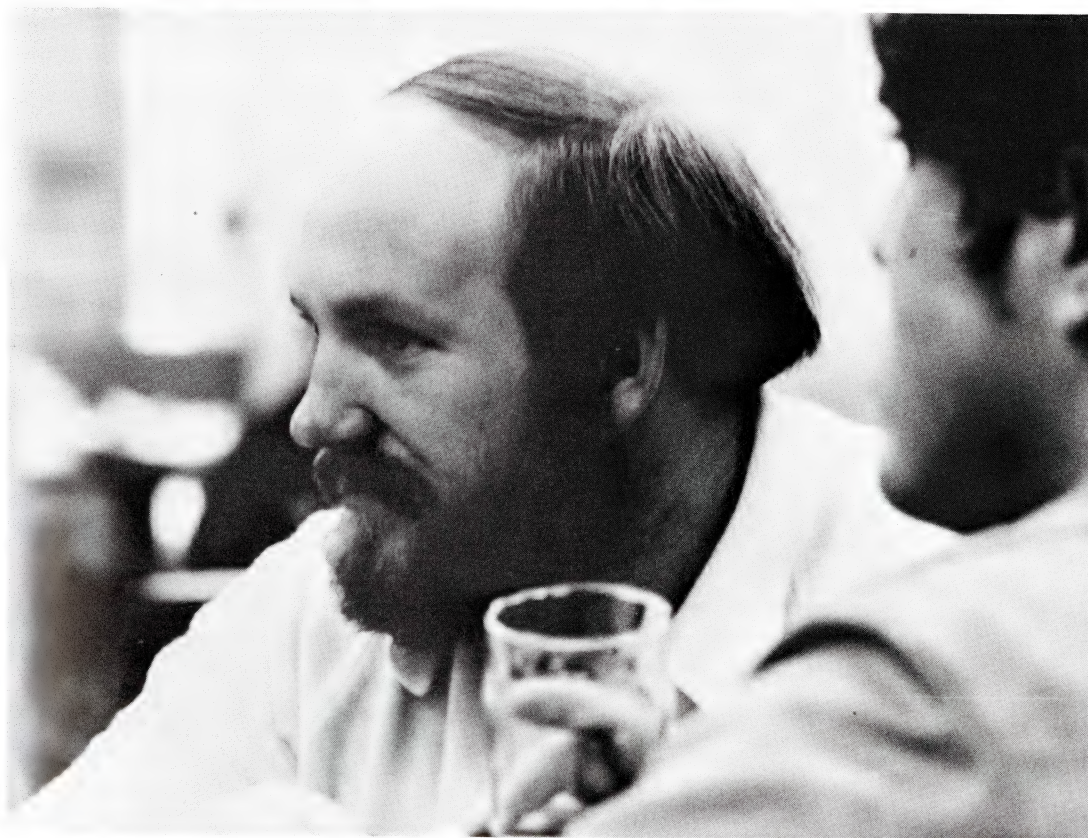

Some find their stay on our campus as eventful as the dutiful eight hour day. Arriving by car, they keep parking spaces filled till the last bell says it's time to stop. During the day a stop for lunch, in the grill, or a sidewalk supervisor's rap on the bench keeps commuters in touch. Daydreaming and studying carry them away to inside channels. All come together for a short time to make up the campus ritual of everydaydom.

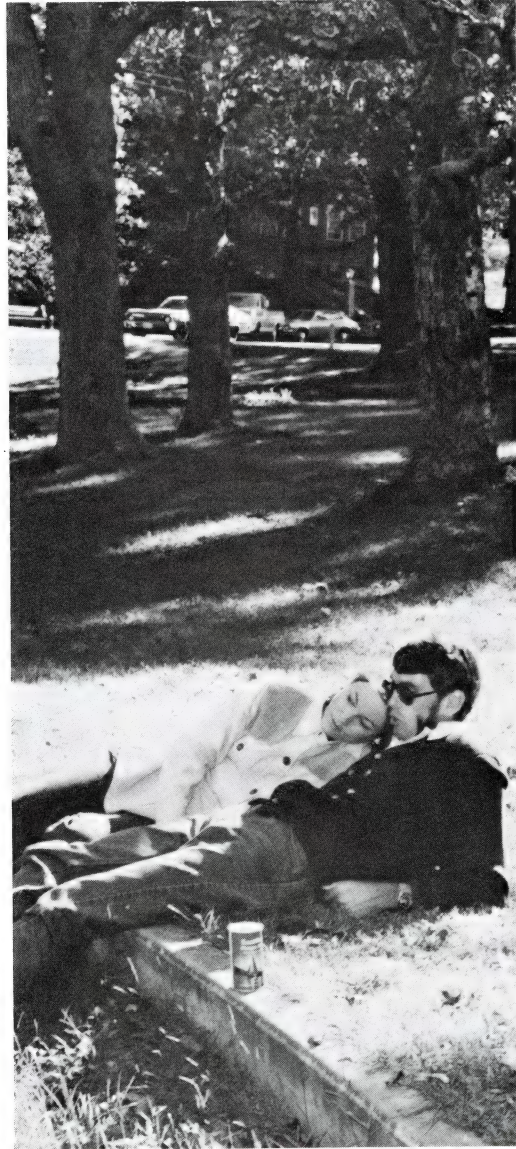

Every morning they arrive in a cloud of exhaust fumes, cursing the lack of parking places and changing the landscape into a Detroit nightmare. Just like a factory — 9 to 5. Sit thru a class or wait on a ride, then off to the car and home again . . . until the next morning.

The Struggle to Belong . . .

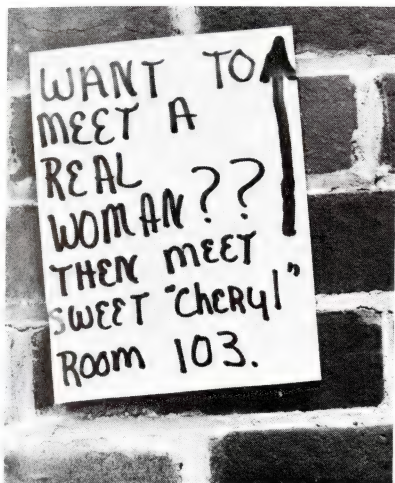

Starting out in new surroundings, it's predictable that a struggle will evolve with everyone emerging at different levels. As the battle subsides, it's most important to take the time to find others to share experiences with and to find yourself to be able to share.

Who am I?
 Yesterday
 I was very far from
 All these places
 And all these things.
 Tomorrow
 I will be a million miles
 From any of the two worlds
 You see me in now.
 Today
 I am filled with so much conflict
 That I have lost
 the way to truth
 And know no way
 To find it.

Homecoming — What does it mean to you?
"I don't remember much of it."
"The thing I liked best was David Frye."
"I thought the game got exciting when the coaches got into a fight."
"... A waste of time and money."

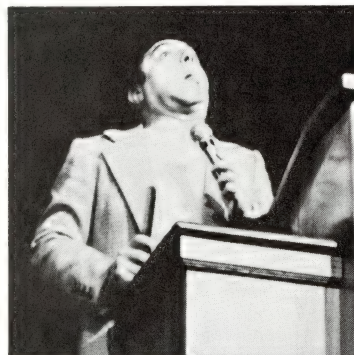

Nationally-known comedian David Frye was more exciting than the football game. A packed audience listened to his relatively non-partisan political satire, and after the whole weekend had passed, many people considered him the high-point of Homecoming.

Homecoming . . .

Homecoming Court

Many sides with many faces

Another Disappointment For The Bucs!

Yvonne Wheelock
Homecoming Queen

Faces told the real story of the Homecoming atmosphere. Dedicated alumni yelled and cheered for the team to "win this one for the class of '57," but later their puzzled faces asked the question, "What happened to the old fighting spirit?"

What began as a big day for the victory-starved Bucs ended with frustrated hostility as the final seconds of the game whizzed by and the scoreboard spelled defeat, 14-7.

Concerts and dances were staged to relieve post-game depression. "The Grass Roots" appeared from some dim recess of the sixties; their back-up group, "The Stompin' Suede Greasers," got even deeper into the nostalgia thing with their imitation of the fifties. Returning alumni were treated to breakfasts and tours of buildings. The drama department did their part by staging their version of Taming of the Shrew which seemed to overwhelm the weekend guests — at least they applauded loudly.

That was Homecoming this year. Next year? Well, who knows; before long we may come up with something better than fireworks to spend $1,000 on, and then maybe it won't be too long before enough people decide that it just isn't that much fun after all.

Many schools don't even have Homecoming anymore. What does this say about the future of this time-honored rite?

"Ludicrous!"

"... Traditional enough to evoke memories of the past, but modern enough to show a good future."

"Homecoming? I didn't go."

until we find our way to the place where rivers flow take my hand and we will dance in the rain.
until we see the beauty in the way a thorn tree grows come to me and we will sing into the night.
until we realize that our past is what makes us smile today look into my eyes and we will fly flowers on the wind.
and when we finally know what it means to be alive
you may go your way and stand in the sun.

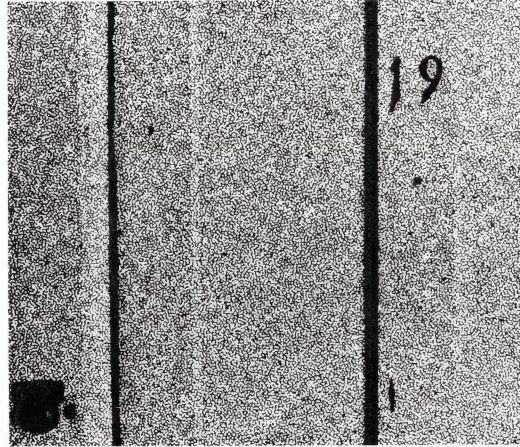

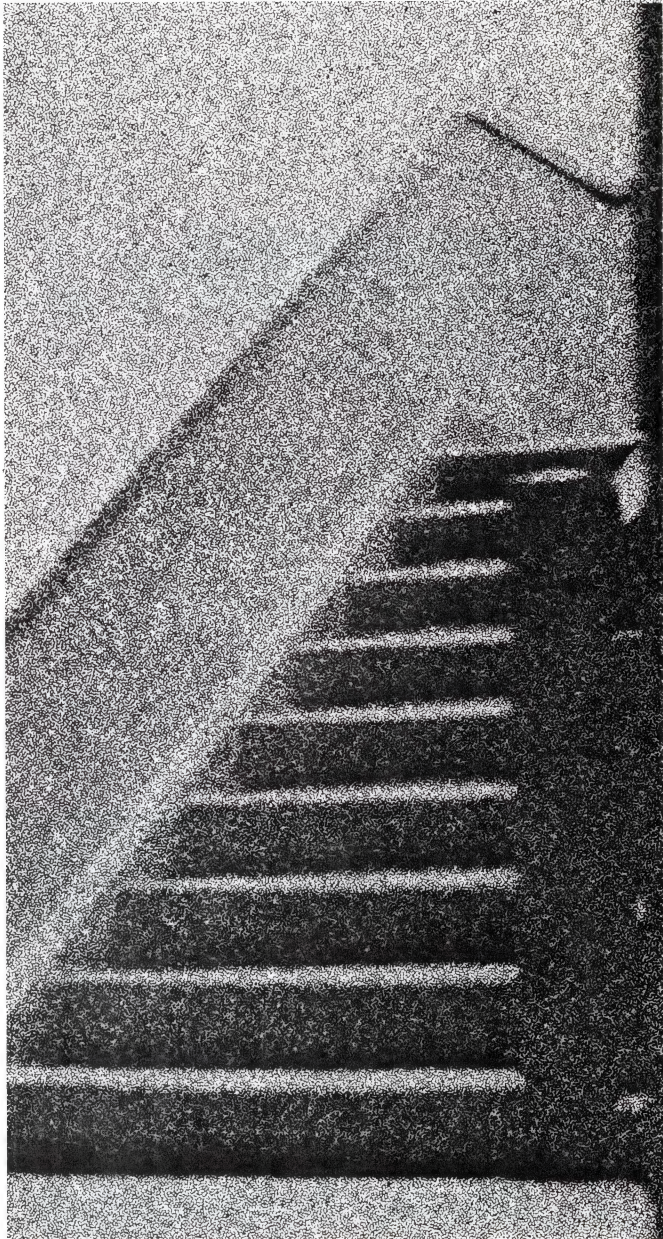

A home away from home

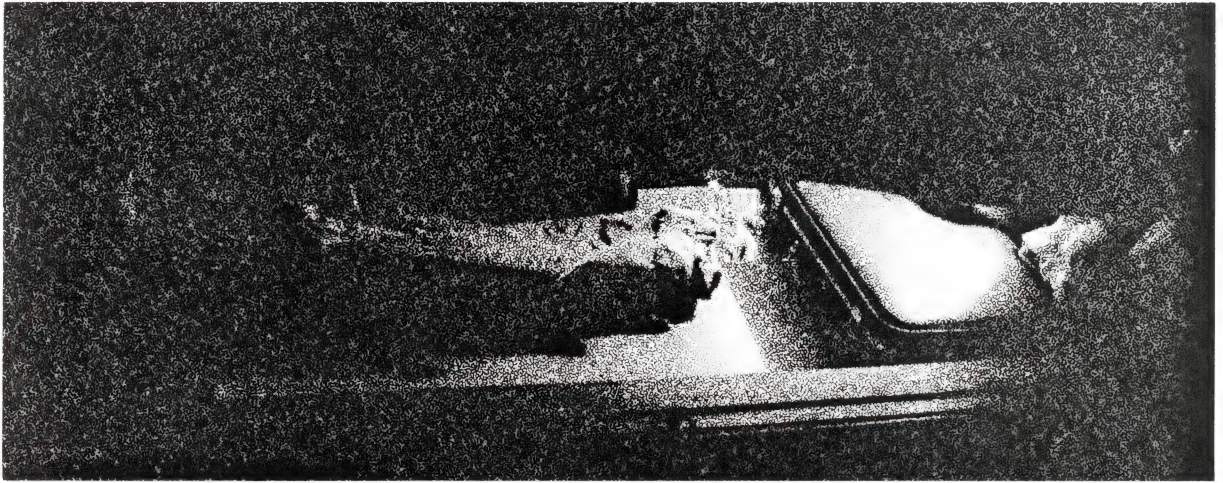

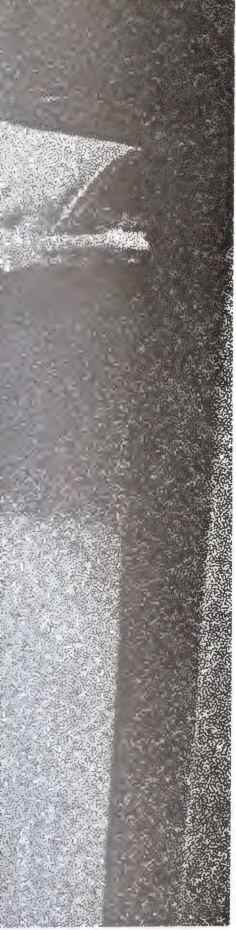

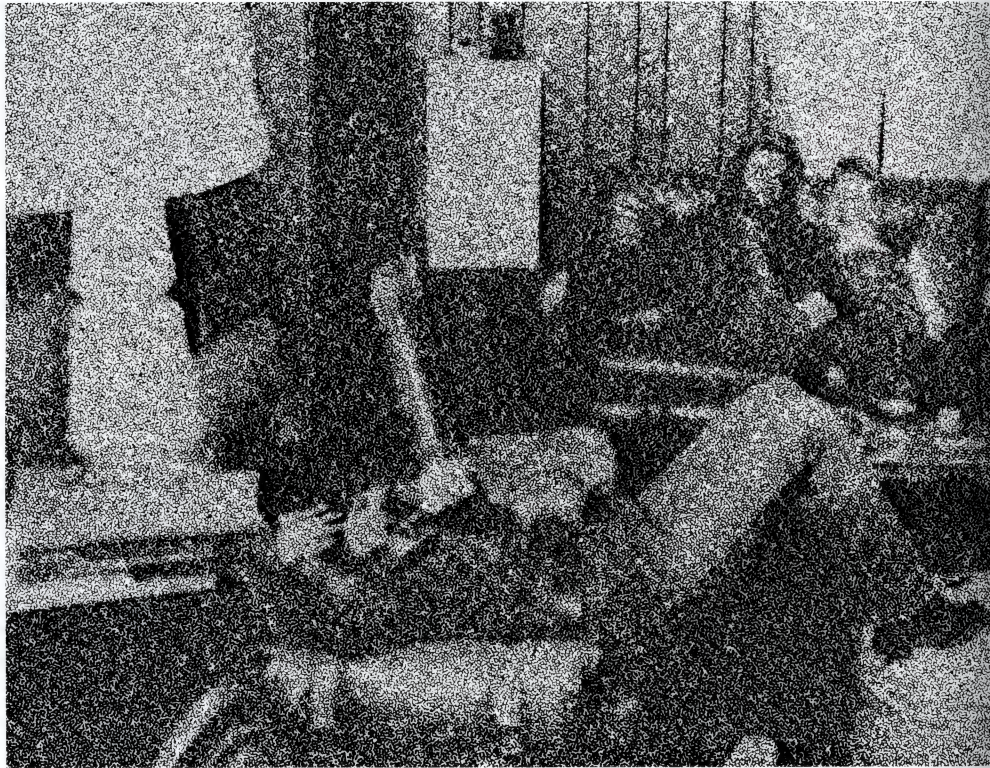

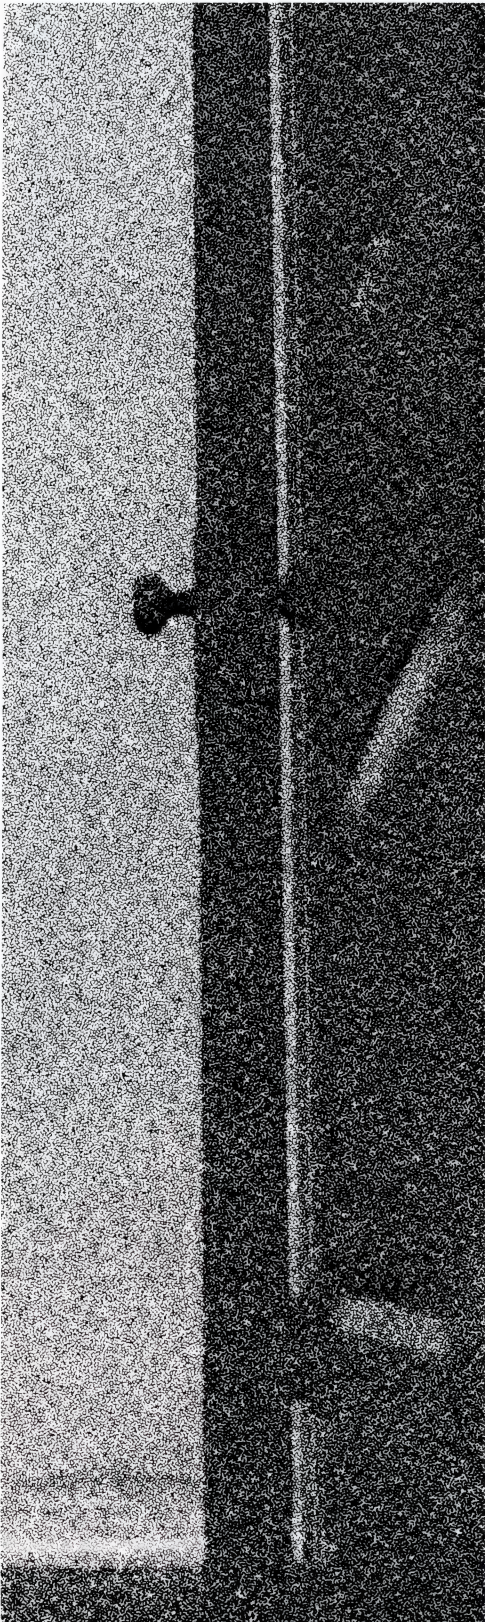

It may not be such a great place, but it's where you live and besides, you are going to do a lot with it when you have the time and money. Just think how close you are to school and what a kicky place it is compared to that dignified house of your parents.

Just think of the freedom . . . you can hang a superman poster if you want. And no more dorm. A kitchen with all the trimmings, even food. You can have your friends in whenever you want — of both sexes — and you decide when they leave.

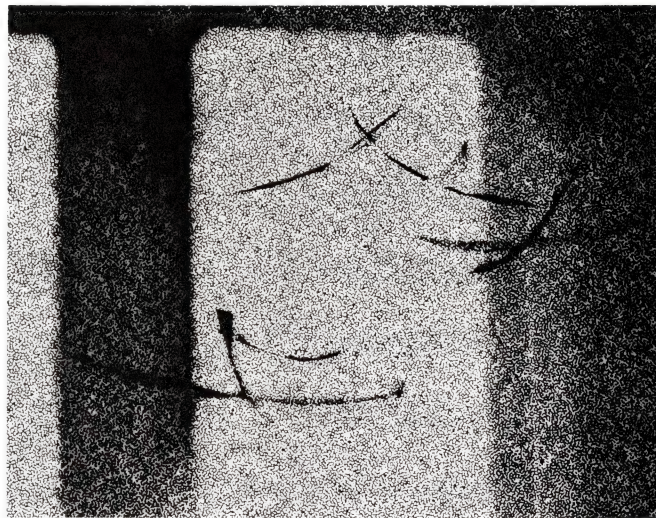

Some of us lead full lives away from the university. Life is more than being a student. It means a home, a place to live with independence and responsibility. It may mean being married, and it almost always means an extra job, other concerns which don't involve school.

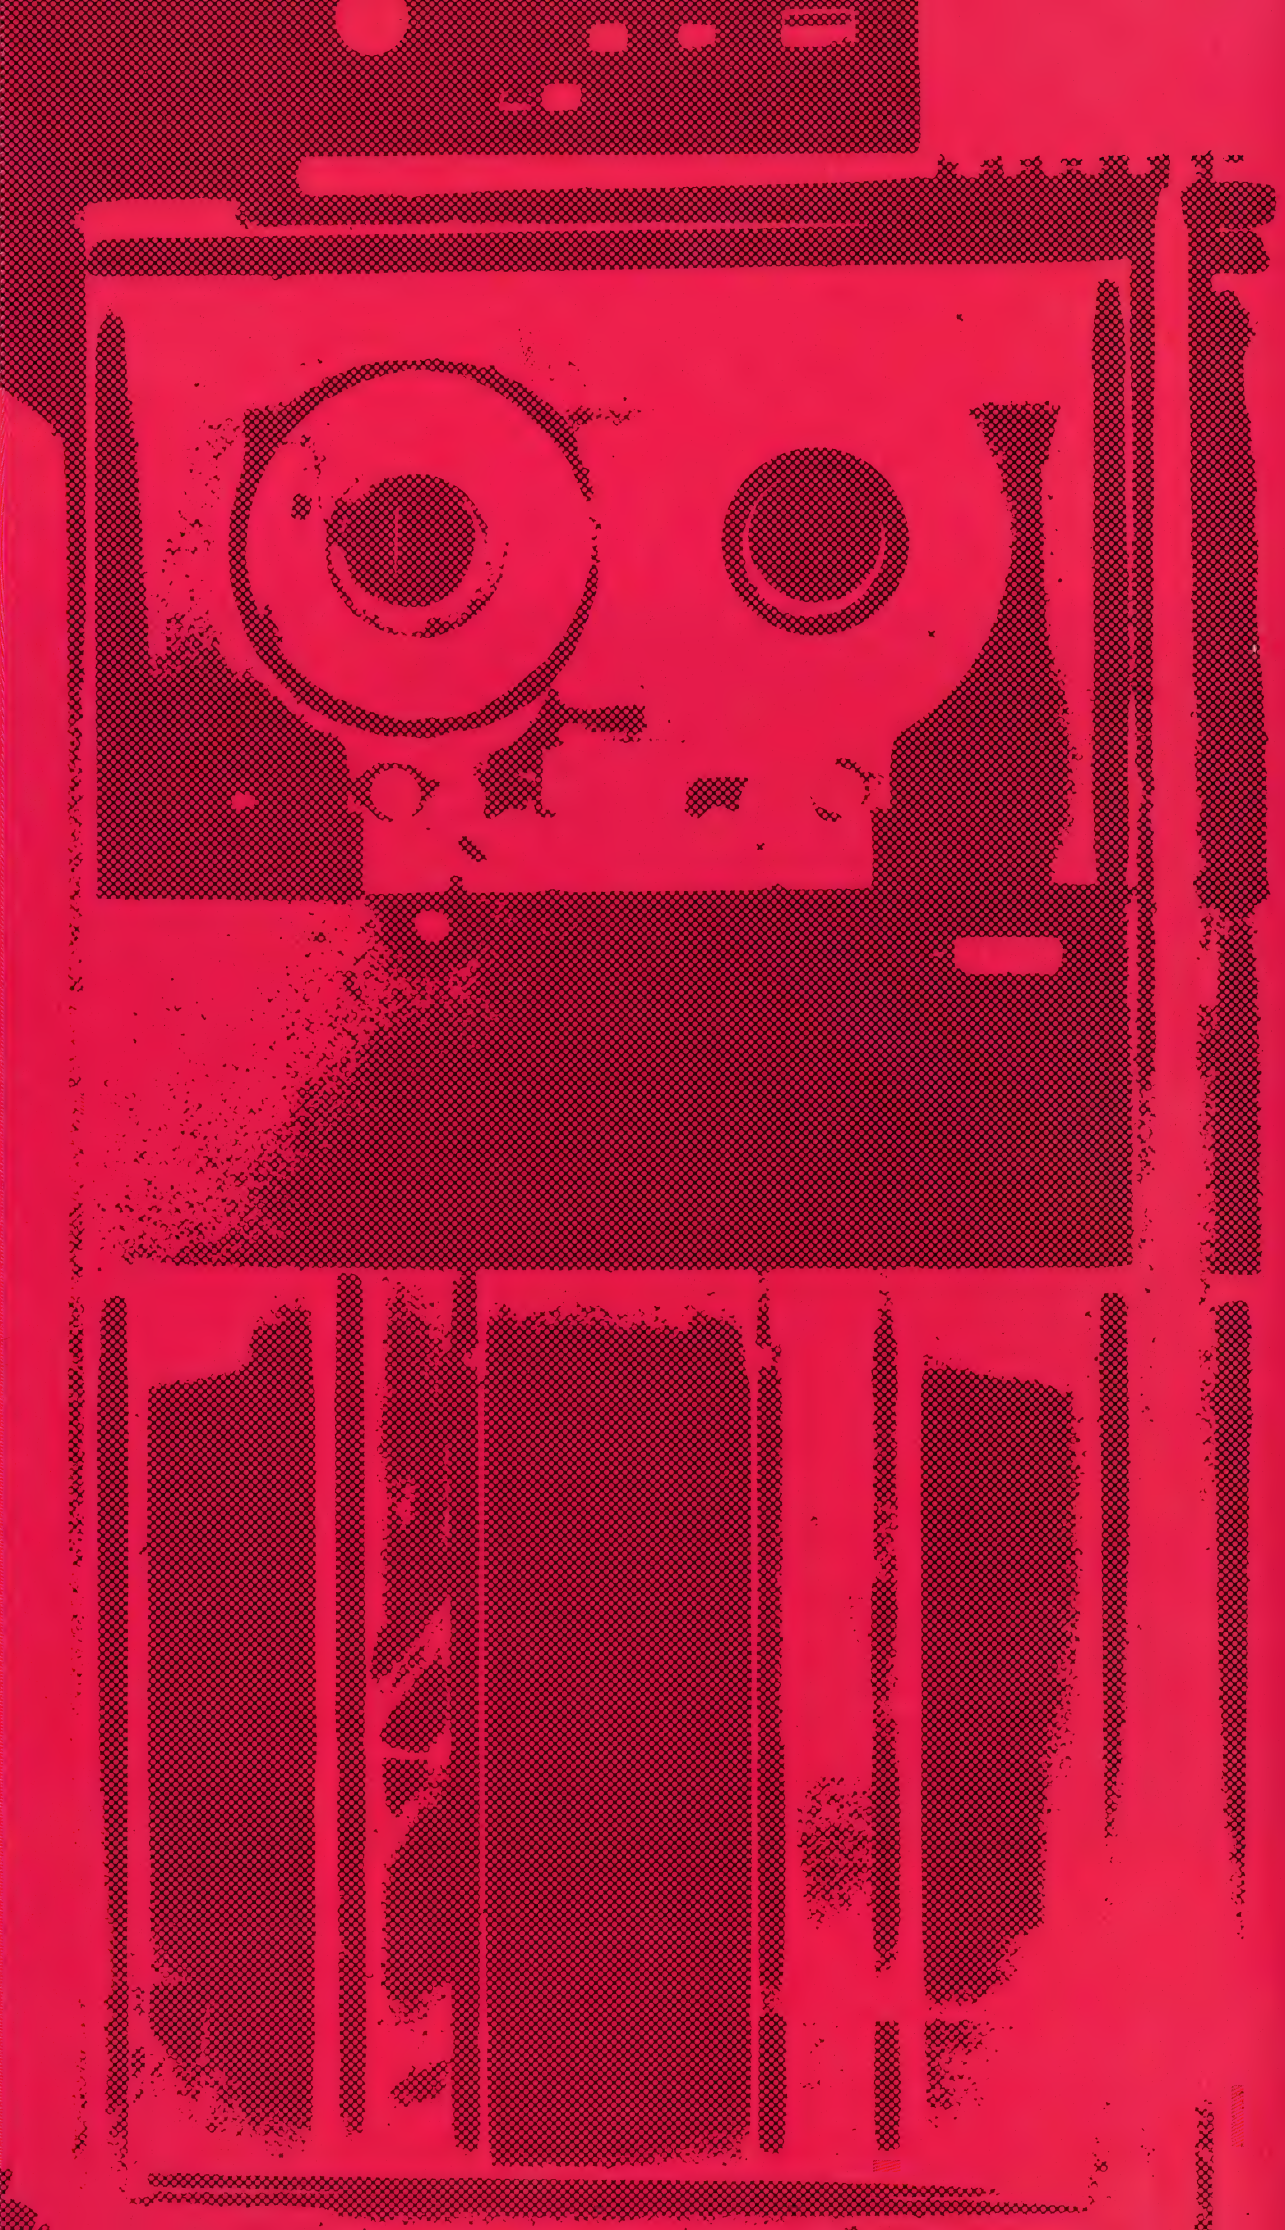

Apartment dwellers walk or drive to school, maybe after dropping small children off to baby-sitters or to school. It may mean dropping a book to pick up a broom, and the issue of what to cook may be just as important as tomorrow's assignment.

Independence is heady stuff, but some of us find it as exhilarating and educational as any class we ever attended. Somehow it just seems important to set your own priorities wherever you live.

Enough said about old man winter, and cold and ice, and snow tires and chains, and wondering rather insecurely whether you are going to make it home.

Sometimes it's just nice to stop and enjoy the sensation of a fleeting, clean landscape. After all, nature does us a special favor by cleaning up the sins of man and shouldn't we be a little grateful and stop worrying about our own status quo?

Looking back upon my life, I freeze upon the tiniest detail
It is one solitary snowflake that helps make up frosting
On rough and uneven ground.
Who wants to know what lies beneath?
One small person, I am swept along
Even at the top of Mt. Everest
I could not see what lies ahead.
So deceptive is snow-white frosting
To gloss over all but the smallest
Detail and leave me helpless
And ignorant of the future ahead.
While the snow melts and the winter moves away,
Here I stand, confused and frozen in time.
Maybe I wait for my own spring thaw.

What makes THIS snow and THIS winter so special?
Because they are here and now.
And the present has to be the most special time
of my life.
I can't be anywhere but here, wading through snow
And my own special weather inside my head.
Just a little overcast and cloudy right now,
If you please.
Subject to change, however, at any time.

Decking the halls can be hard work

The holiday season means "make the Christmas merry by working at it" for many students who find part-time or full-time jobs to fill stockings — and bank accounts for winter quarter.

It also may mean a time for honoring tradition for what it represents and what it is, such as a "strange-looking" Italian Christmas tree at the Carroll Reese Museum.

Christmas is for children. We all know that. Various fraternities and sororities tried to make sure some area children knew it too, so they gave parties with toys and holiday food and some of the spirit that goes with the season.

The art department helped us decide what kind of gifts we wanted to buy ourselves. What did we buy ourselves? Maybe Christmas is too out-dated for us anymore. Or maybe we are just too old for Christmas. Too old to be children. Too old to be ourselves.

Tis the season to be jolly for some of us. The rest of us just window shop a lot. A shopping spree can be a narrow path down a long, dark corridor when there's no money to spend, and it seems there has to be cash and lots of it to celebrate the season.

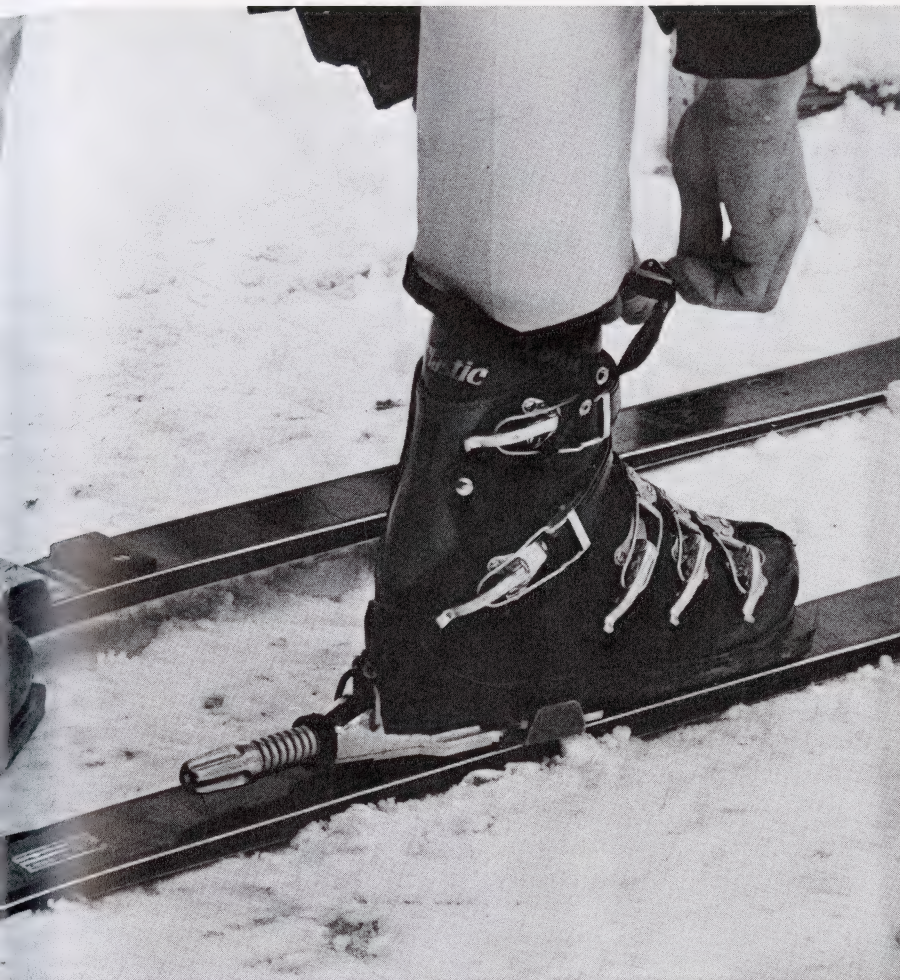

Sking...

Exhilarating, exciting . . . the greatest fun around.

To master those awkward wooden sticks
To be graceful and strong and sure
To make nature's playground your own territory
To be free, really free.

Ski classes at ETSU . . .

Beginner, intermediate and advanced level classes were offered this year. Over 400 students, eager to take their lumps and learn this new magic, stumbled, staggered and floated down glacier hills in search of this new accomplishment.

What a great idea

Early Registration/Drop And Add Policy

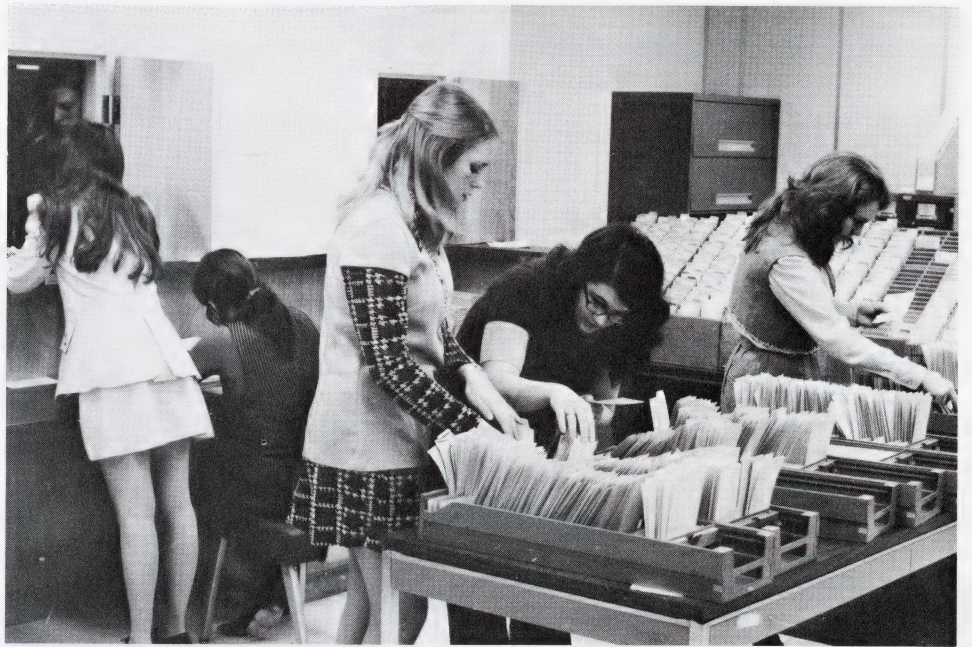

"Early registration gives the student hope for a good schedule. At least one he can live with."

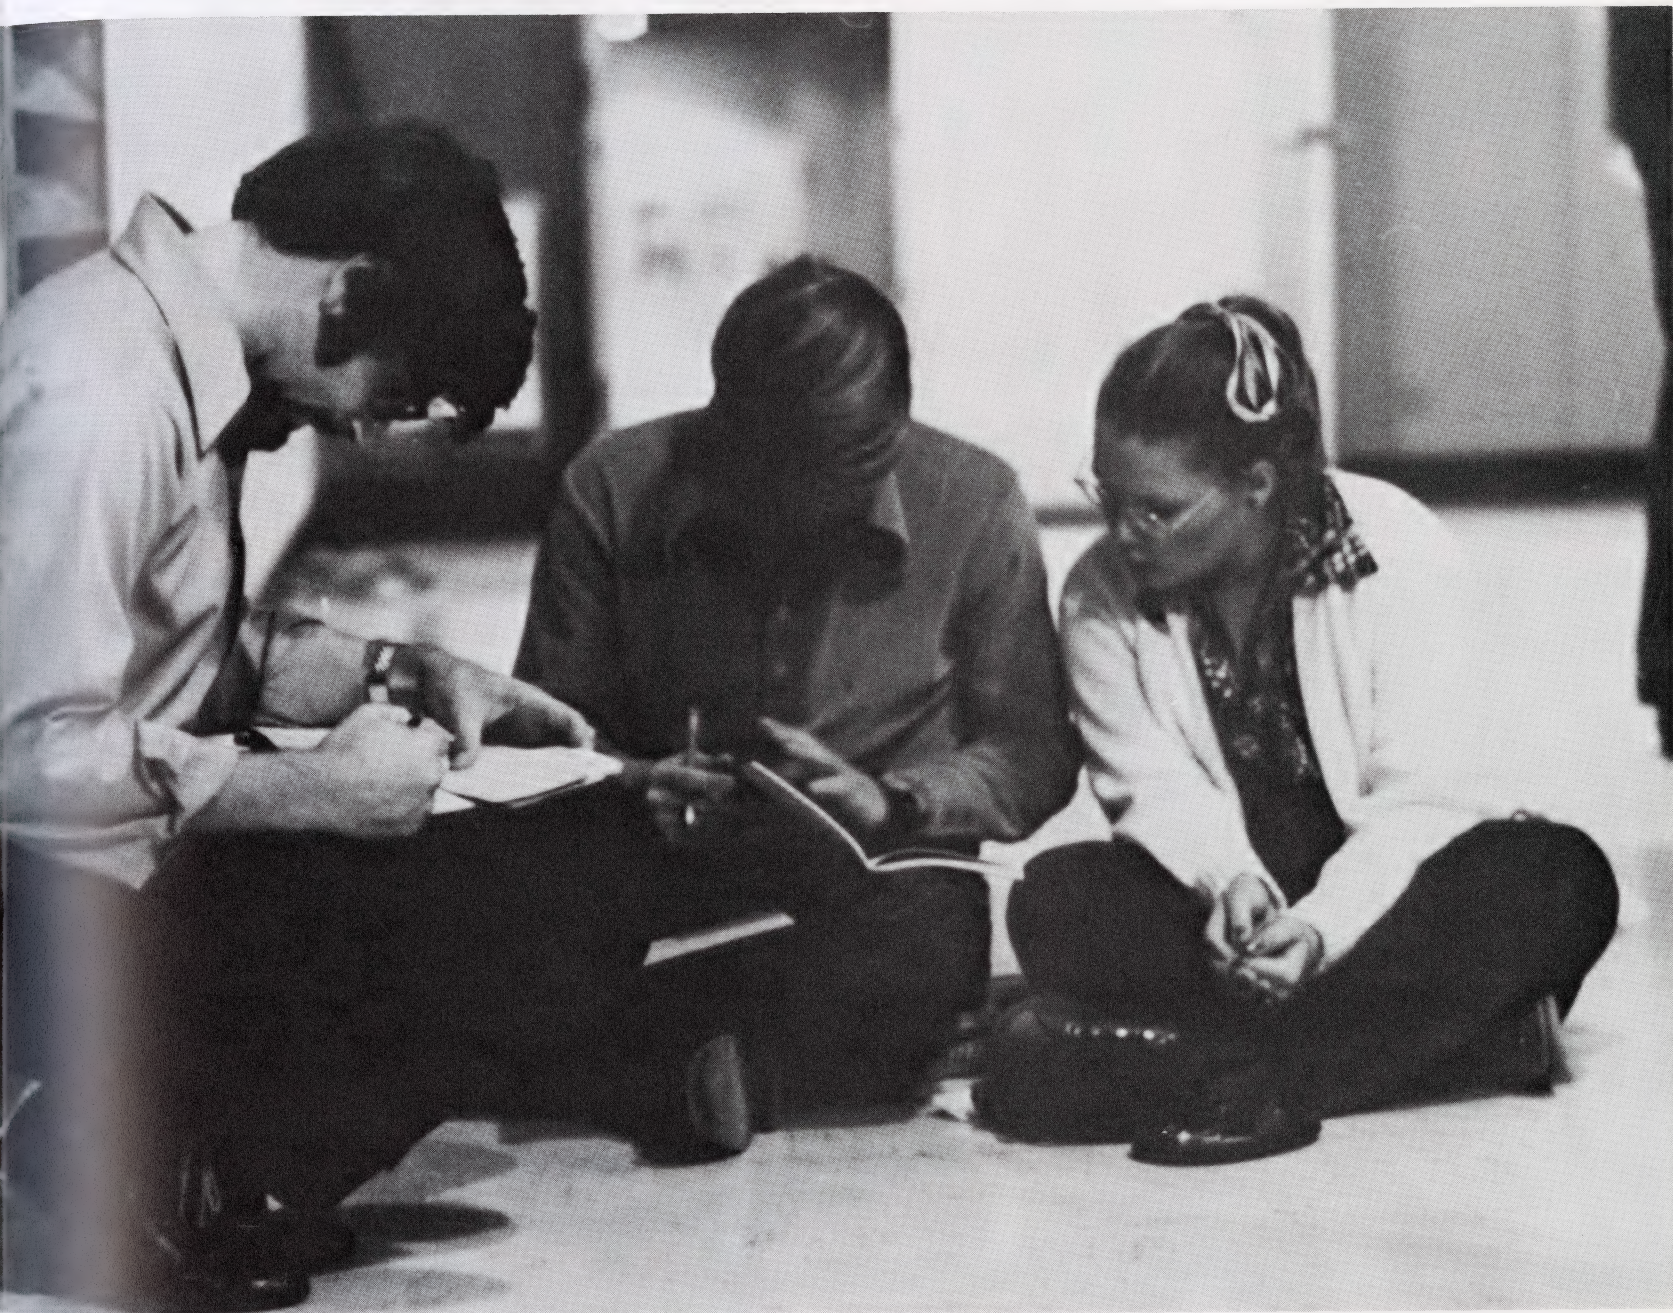

"The new drop and add system is the best thing to happen to ETSU. In the past the student was forced to obtain an excessive number of signatures from people who could care less whether he stayed in a class."

"Why force students to carry classes they don't like, aren't doing well in, or feel they aren't getting anything out of?"

Drop and add may produce tired feet like the old registration system, but students apparently think it is worth it. Have you heard anyone complain? Probably not.

The big question: will I make it this time?

The Kingsport Center is not a miniature ETSU or a molecule of UT. It's a center of learning in its own right, the home of 1100 students who are not extensions of ETSU students but students in their own right. And many of them find the center very adequate to their part-time or full-time educational needs. There are 350 full-time students and 15 full-time faculty members.

Dr. Carl W.

The center's evening program offers courses from the freshman to master degree level. There are 31 classrooms and chemistry and biology labs and physical education facilities. Although there are no immediate building plans, parking facilities are being increased. The center has its own student government association and an intramural program.

And then we'll come to hear one guy in the middle of a small spotlight singing some simple ballad or country and western with a twangy guitar. It might be someone who's been there and back like Mike Nesmith. Or even someone some of us know like Ed Snodderly.

Roger and Wendy and some of their friends entertained at one of the mini, sometimes meaningful concerts which became almost a habit this year. Ed Snodderly was there again too.

Art is more than a spot of color on a canvass.
Even if a two-year-old can recognize the "natural object"

Directly to your heart and emotions.
It short-circuits the hang-ups and misinformation

But men don't flower or bloom,
They just ARE.
There is a longing inside of me
To just BE.

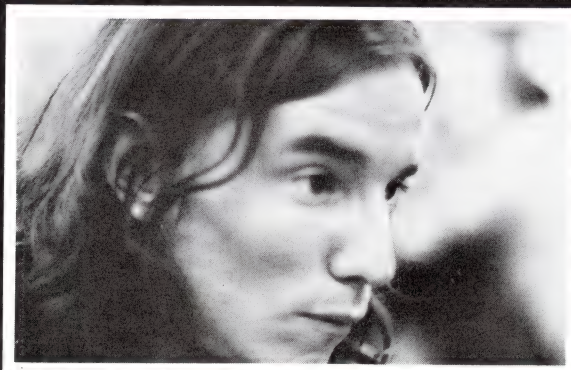

Bombed out craters and machines flying overhead. Old French graveyards tell us somberly that many men have tried and failed. Men return home, some with destroyed minds or bodies. Some only a little distorted. What kind of prospective should we have on this "tiny" land war in Southeast Asia? Have you been there? Were you afraid you would have to go?

Now we can only drift until we know how history will treat us. How have we treated the Vietnamese people? And have we really treated ourselves as well as we thought?

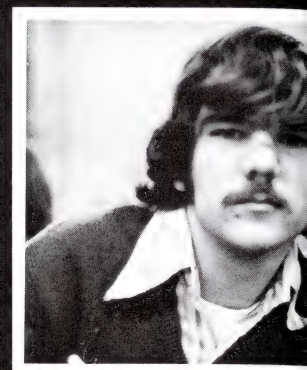

East Tennessee is so far from that other world. Why are we so close to the war that we cannot see or are we afraid to evaluate our own conduct?

Ms. Betty Friedan

"In a life span of 70 years, being a wife and mother is no longer enough for a woman to define herself."

"The movement is a 'me, too' response to black, student and colonial revolutions."

"Women's liberation is the most important movement for social and political change in the United States."

"The women's movement had to come first because man could not admit he wanted to experience the soft and tender."

"Let's liberate the strength of women and the tenderness of men."

Woman . . . all alone and by herself

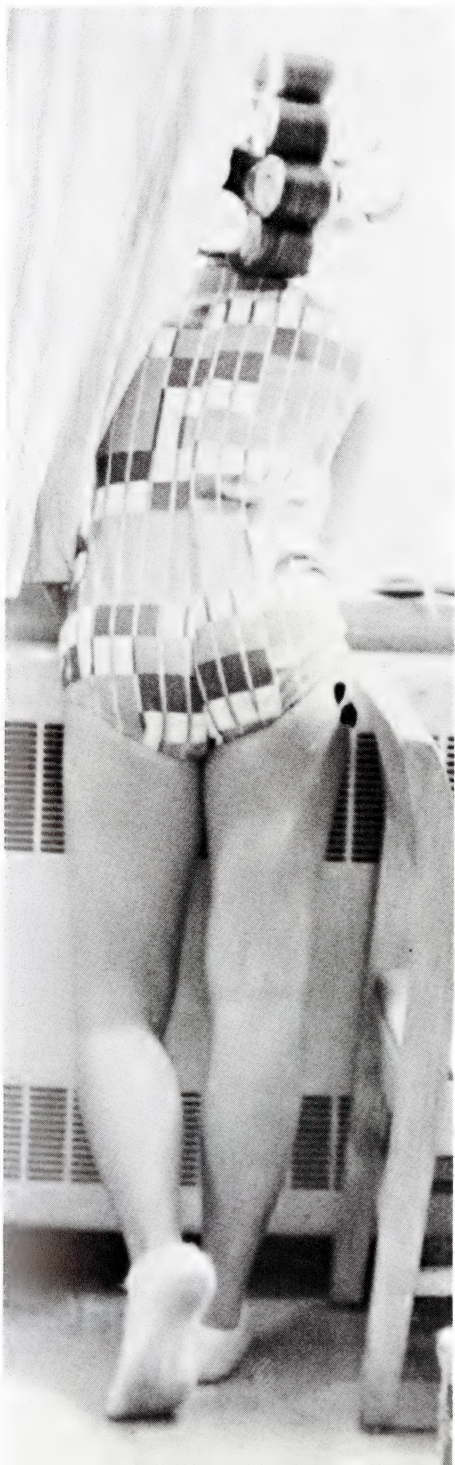

She is the mystery woman of all the ages. Man has feared her, and she has feared herself. Man has scorned her, and she has scorned herself. Man has exalted her and deluded them both. She is neither the dust beneath man's feet nor the star above his head. She stands beside him, in every way unique and in every way equal.

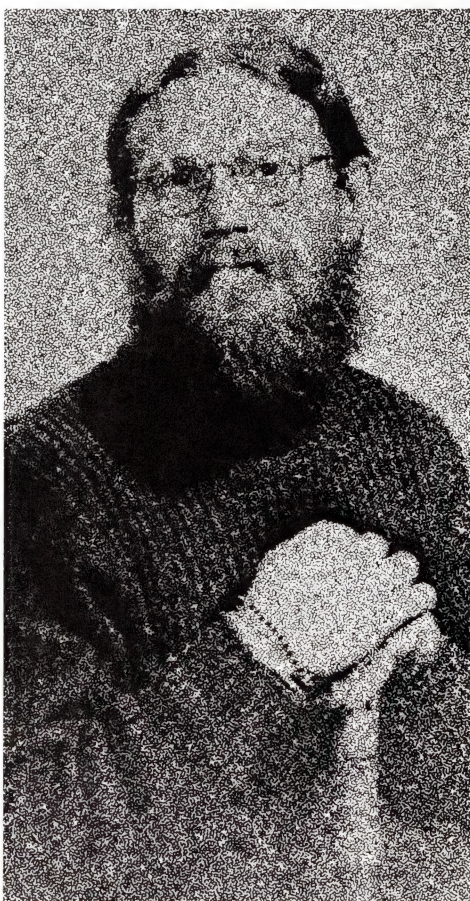

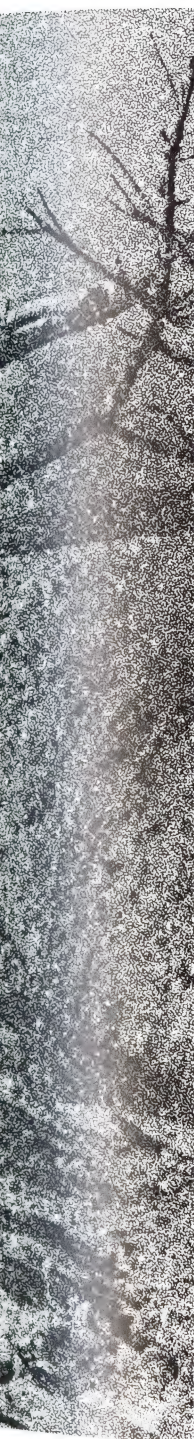

She is communicably and uncompromisingly herself. And when she accepts herself, man will have to accept her too. No longer subservient to her fears or man's expectations, she will not have to say who or what she is. Eyes shining with self-esteem, she may choose to include a man in her life, or she may not . . .

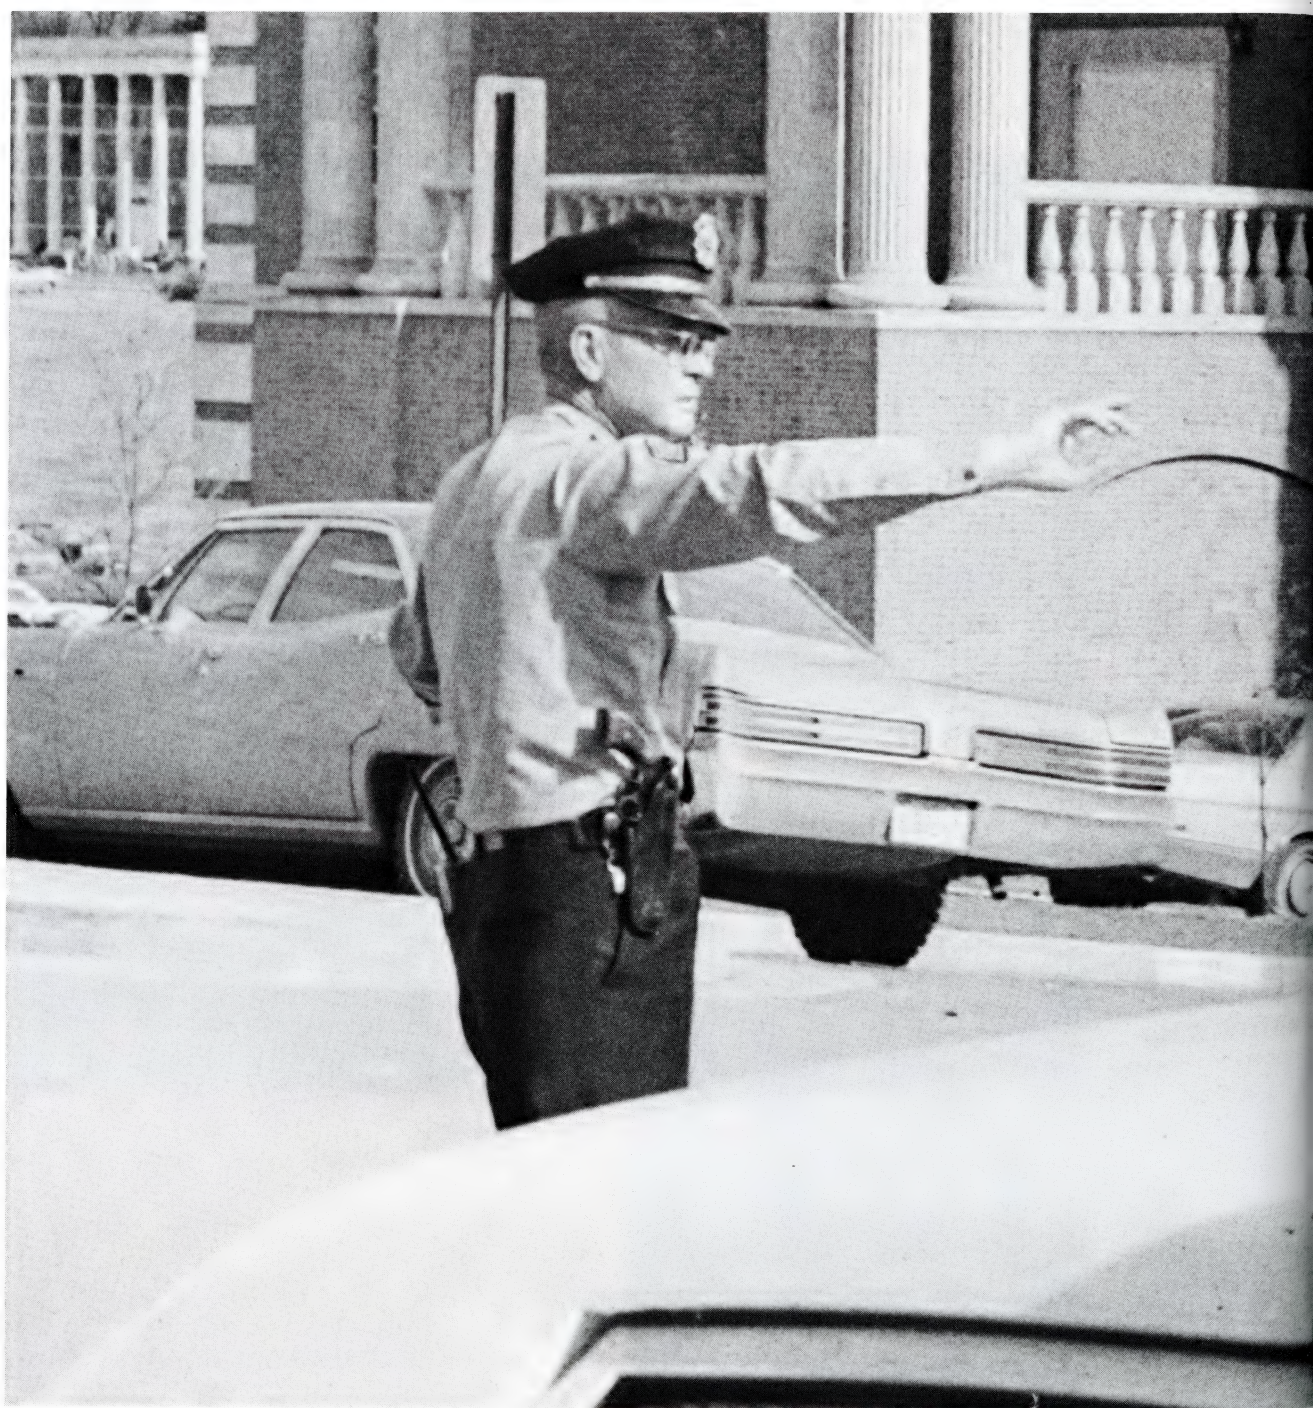

Men everywhere are waking up just in time to see that not only women have something to complain about. Seeing women trapped in one long identity crisis, men have decided the term liberation may not be too restrictive to exclude them. However, they have also discovered that liberation may be too vague a movement to include anyone.

Trying to free the whole human race is an awfully big order. It may be just enough to start inside oneself by doing some quiet puzzling about what it means to be a human being and a man at the same time. Just that small start can mean forsaking an old role and heading into the new frontier of relationships between men and women.

Campus Police — The Long Arm

of the Law at ETSU.

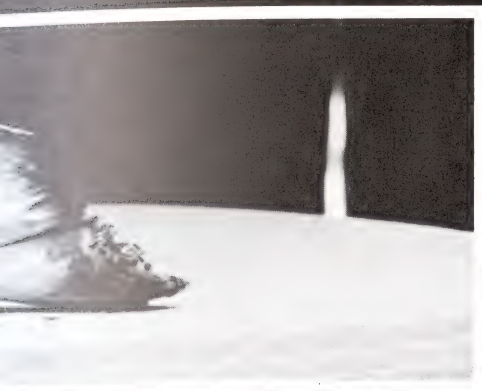

Campus policemen are familiar faces around here. And friendly faces, even if you don't think giving tickets is the best way of showing friendliness. So think before you park or your next encounter with a campus cop may be less agreeable than the one below.

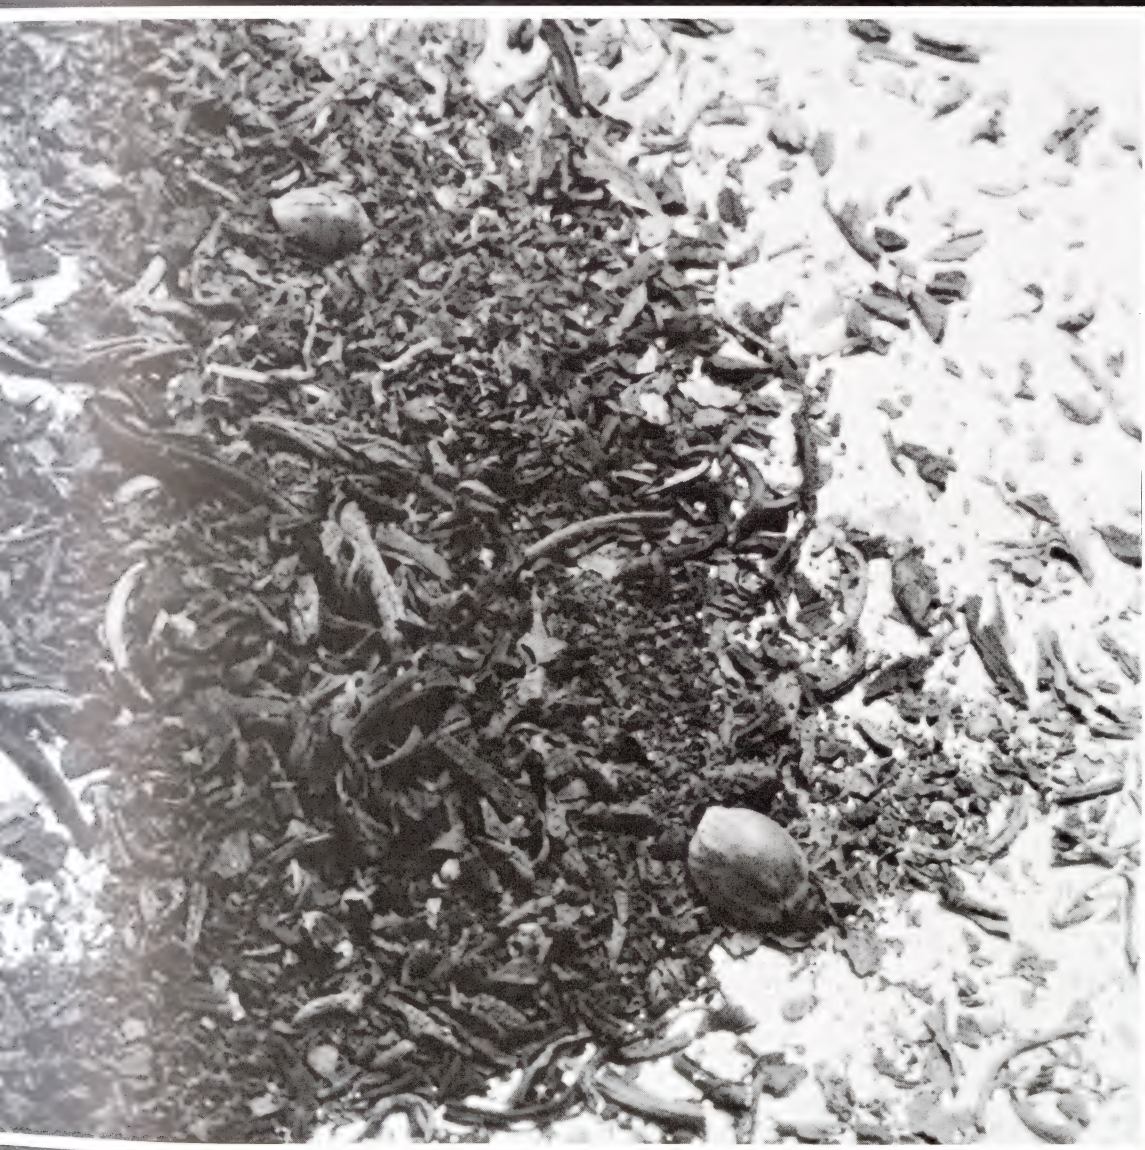

The common reason usually given for use of drugs to find oneself. As one occasional user put it, "I used drugs and did find myself as an individual. But now I kind of wish I had done it by myself."

Other reactions ranged from, "It's a game, and I love it" to a scornful "Drugs are a crutch, nothing more." It seems like the tide has turned considerably against other drugs, while attitudes have grown a little more casual toward marijuana. Still it never hurts to remember the use of marijuana is illegal and may not be worth the risk involved. Students are adults and must choose for themselves.

No one knows how many students here use drugs. We can be sure some people do. Is drug use as widespread here as on other campuses? No one knows that either. A guess would be no.

Why do people use drugs? How serious is the use of marijuana? The Tennessee legislature evidently no longer think it is as serious as other drugs; the penalties are considerably lighter.

The Magic Formula: Spring

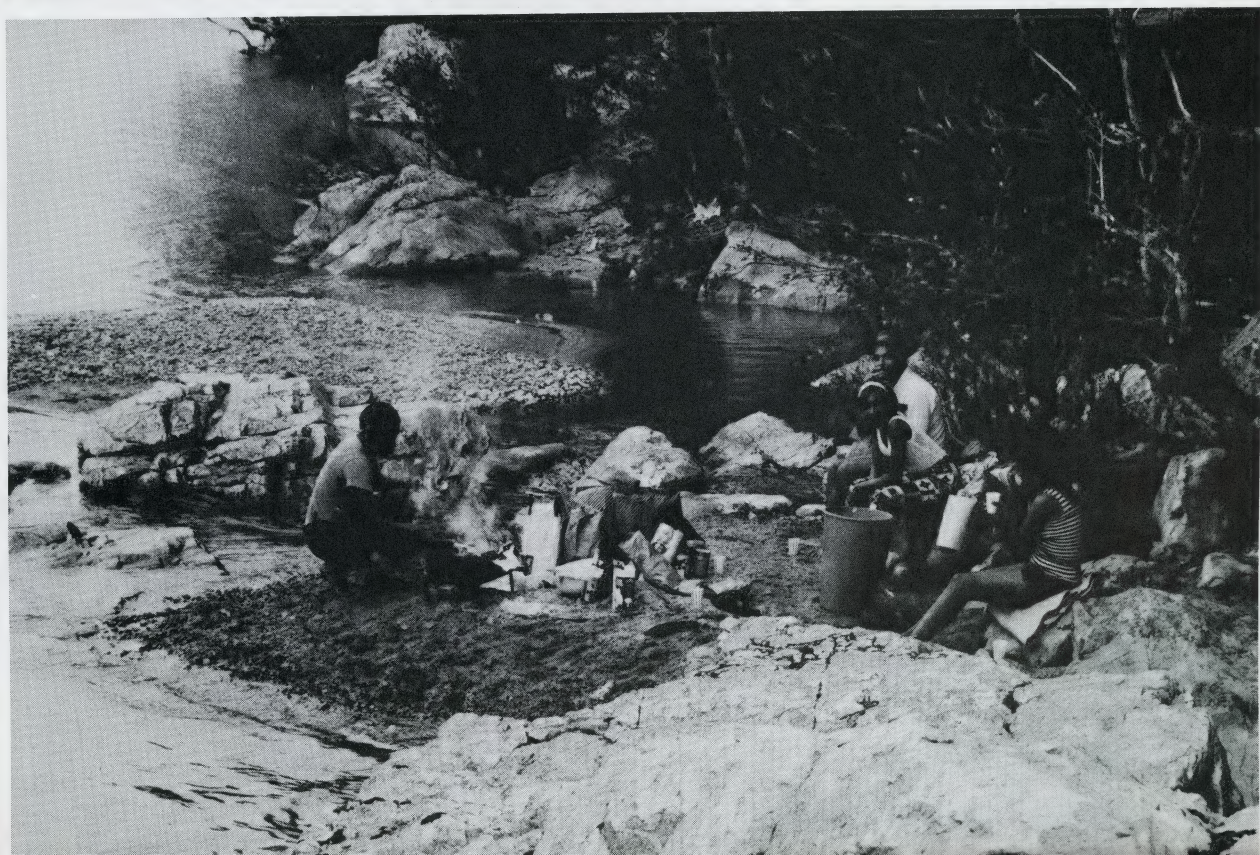

I solemnly swear that I will be a model student this spring — that I will not miss an afternoon class because the sky is blue and sun is blinding me to the door through which I must go to be educated.

I swear that I will spend every evening in the library, absorbing great quantities of knowledge and ignoring the fact that the sun is saying goodbye in orange and the wind is soft and peaceful.

However, I am tired and a little deranged by the torrid winter just past and cannot be held responsible for my actions.

I am spring's fair maiden.
I bring rain and lots of green
And all the flowers that dance
In whatever direction the sun's rays flow.
I can melt the frostiest heart
And fill it with my song, the solemn hymn

Human gratitude or praise I do not need.
I perform my function in a curiously
Satisfying but biological way.

Can an open door be closed to you?
What if stepping outside that door means nothing more than crossing the line of confusion and uncertainty. You've been inside for four years safe and protected, sheltered from bad weather and knowing every day of your life where to go and what to do.
What will happen to you when 11:05 is just that with no connection to fourth period. Think about that as you hurry to class.

Lofty dreams,
Some yours,
Some others,
Mixed with a little luck,
Fermented in money,
And, yes, even some skill,
Brought you here.
Ready to make your mark on brick halls.
And you never realize
Until later
It's not the halls,
It's you,
That'll be marked.

The Graduate

1973 Style

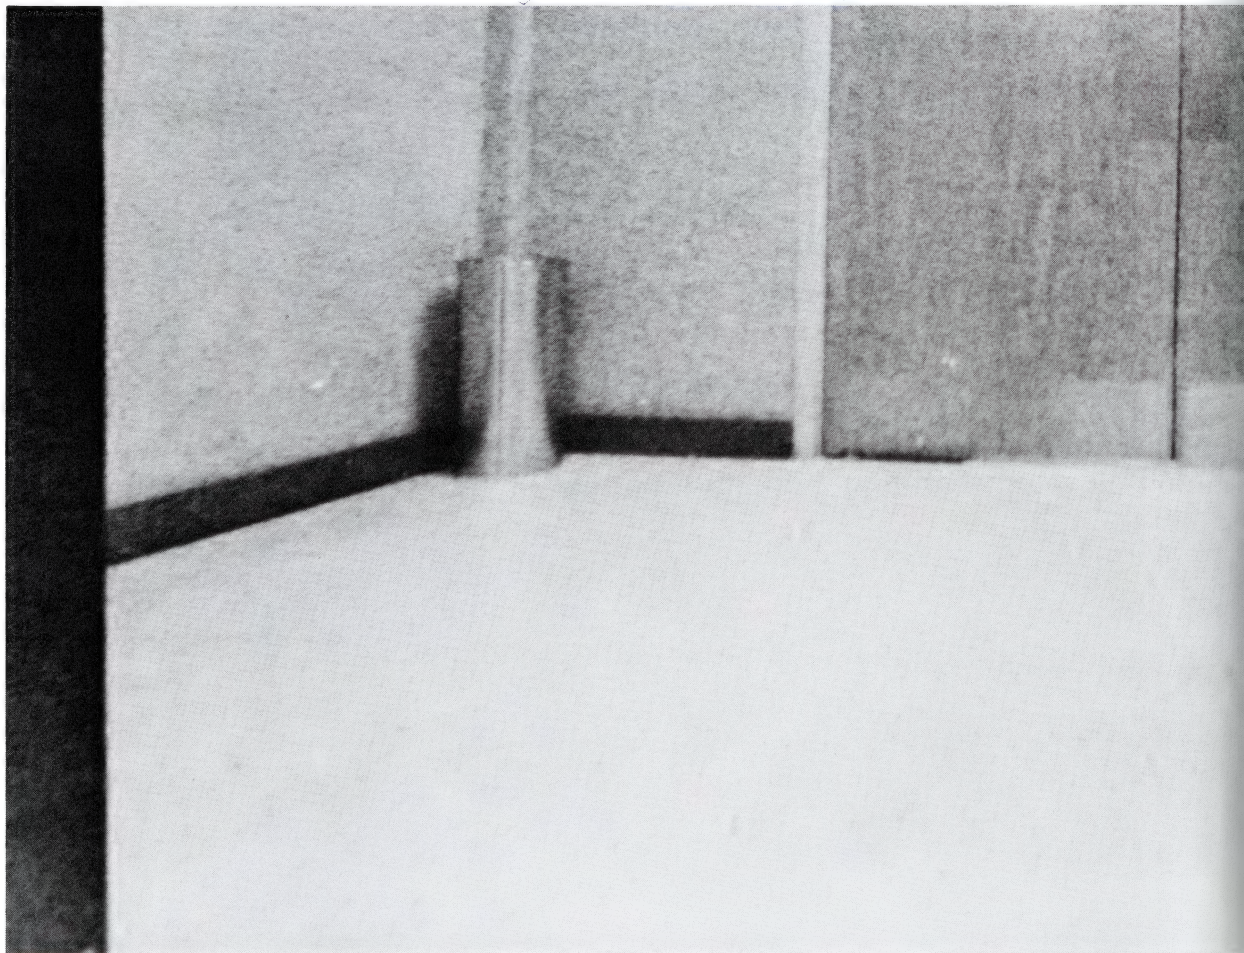

Deep down inside
You never really believed
It could happen.

When you went to class
It was always the same get in get out
 don't look bored
 don't look interested just get it over with.

And suddenly you realize that it's not next year
It's not next quarter
But it's next week
And you don't have a robe for the ritual
And you forget to get invitations.

You just turned your back for a minute
And all of a sudden
You're a graduate.

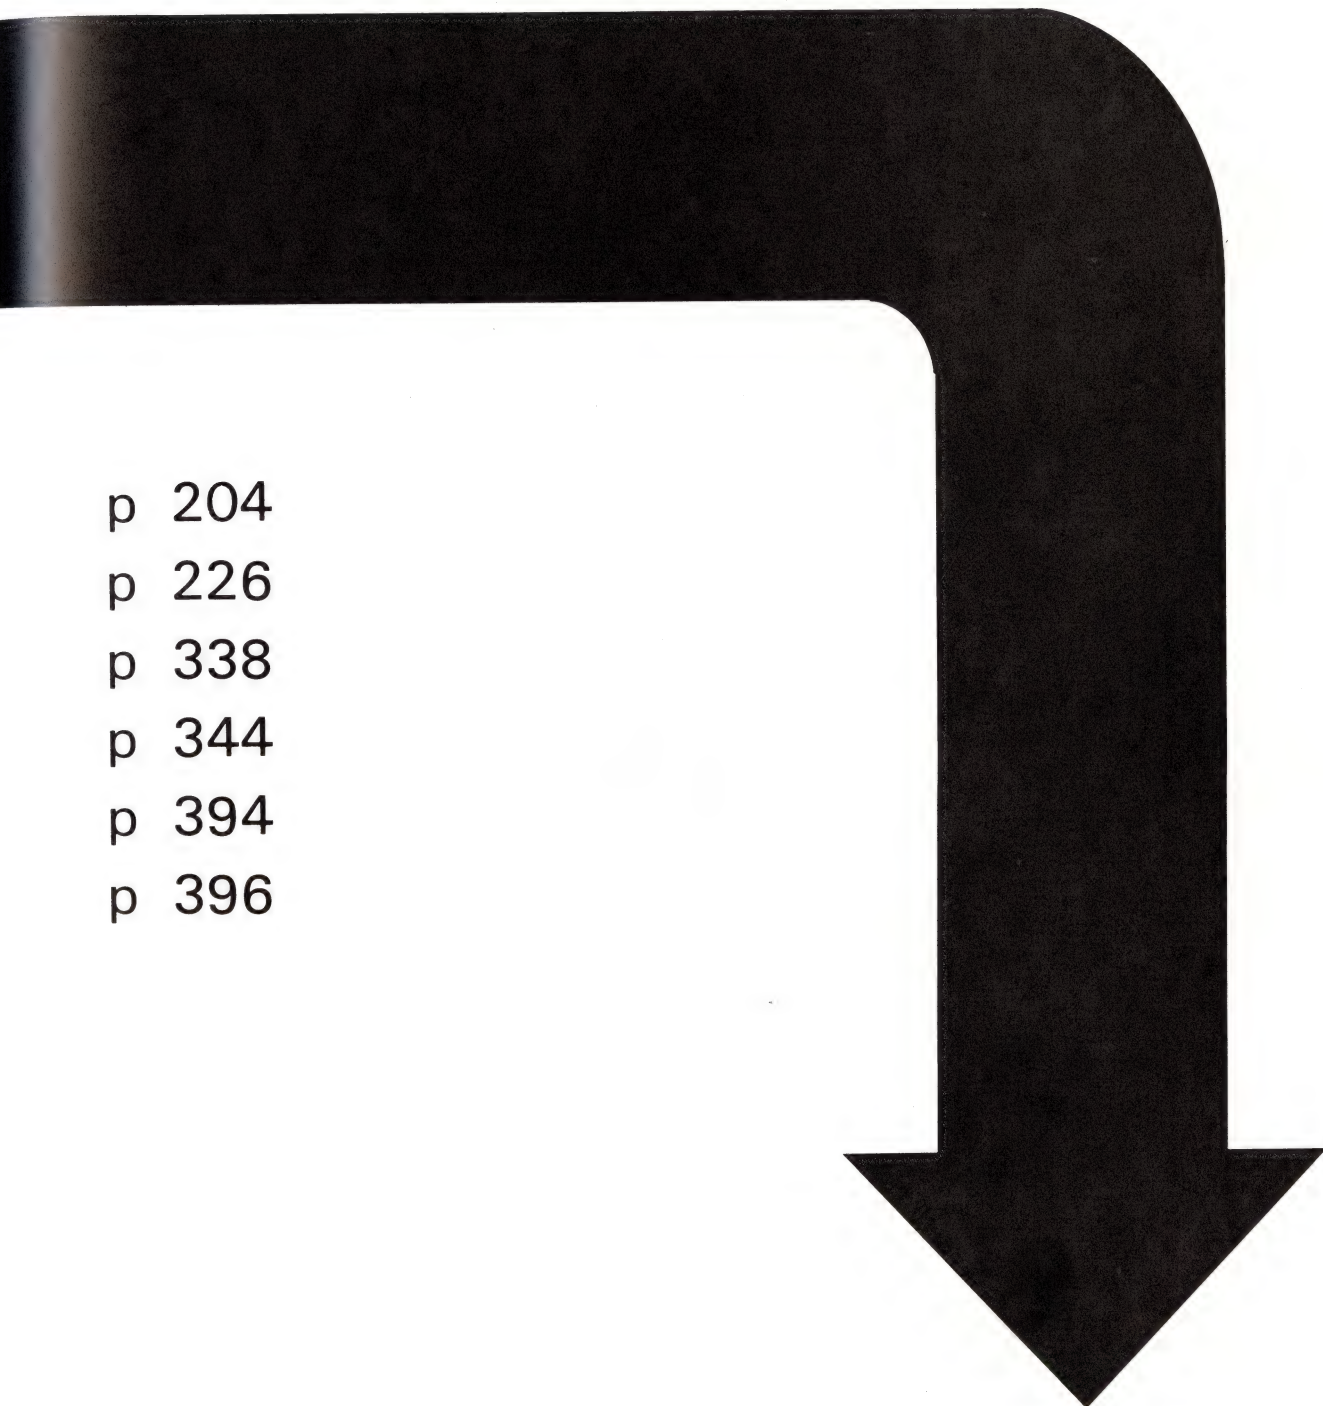

I filled out papers that say
I should be placed.
Wondering where and if,
I sit here.
Annoyed at the silk which brushes
Where perspiration trickles.
Wearing this shroud,
I wonder where the promised tomorrow is
And I realize that the muffled voices I hear are symbolic of the great bureaucratic void.
"To hell with it," I say to the future
And am at once afraid for myself.

Sports 72

Times to Remember . . .

Times to Forget . . .

Baseball . . .

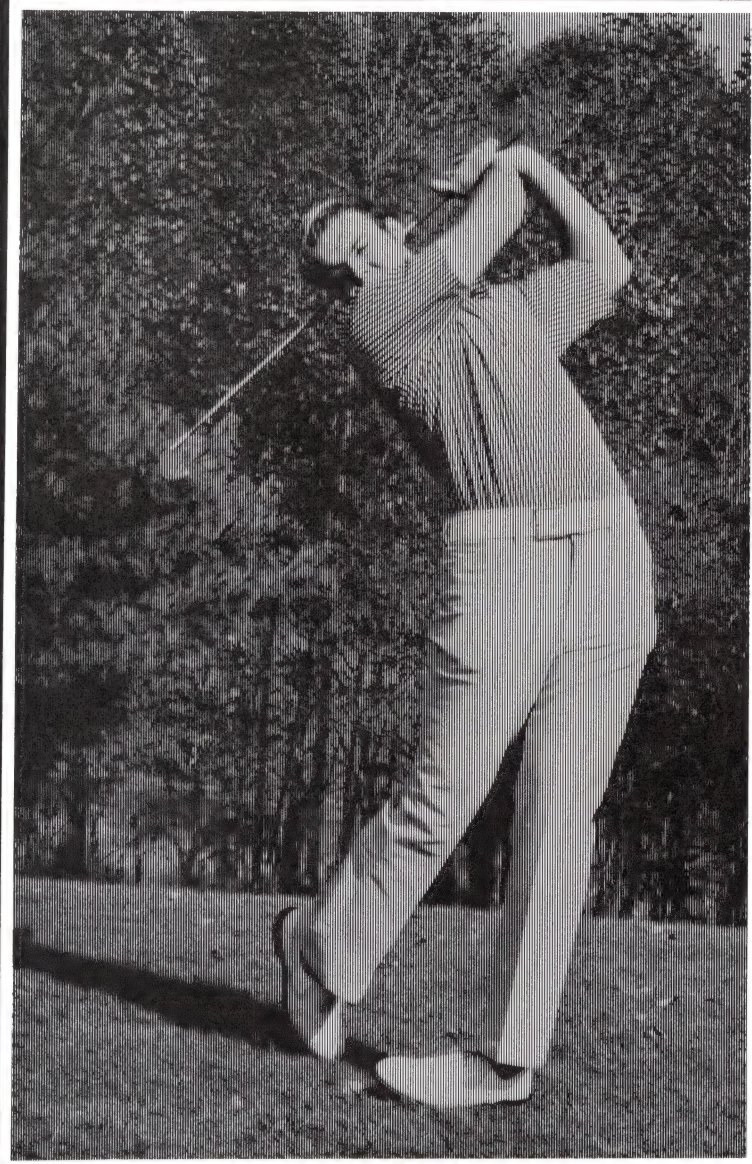

Track . . .

The Track Team had a good season and a great second place finish in the O.V.C. meet. Great because it represents about the only place left after Western Ky. finishes their traditional first in the Conference. Western has won the last six conference titles in a row.

Although graduation struck a crippling blow, track coach Dave Walker is building the kind of program needed to challenge Western in the future. This year Coach Walker is counting on a couple of freshmen, Center Jackson and David Tipton, along with returnees Lee Boggs and Doran Marcus to team with E.T.S.U.'s unmatched distance runners to provide us with a competitive and representative team.

Golf...

Buc golfers were at their best when the chips were down. They came in 1st in the Ohio Valley Conference Tournament and 1st in the Tennessee Intercollegiate. The buccaneer golf program has received some national recognition in the last few seasons and this is helping Coach Hal Morrison build a golf program which soon may be comparable to our Cross Country accomplishments. Hard-fighting, hustling spirit, and team play are adjectives which just don't apply to golf so maybe determined will do for the Buc golfers.

Rifle Team . . .

The East Tennessee State UN University Rifle Team is one of the best anywhere. It is a team that is truly blessed. Blessed with good looks and good shooters. A person could easily mistake Mary Keys for a model, but in actuality she is just one of the top notch shooters on the Buc squad. Teaming with Tom Wassom and others they comprised a team that seldom has been defeated. Balance is the key to the success of any team sport and balance is what our Rifle Team had. In fact, the Bucs often entered two teams with both being victorious.

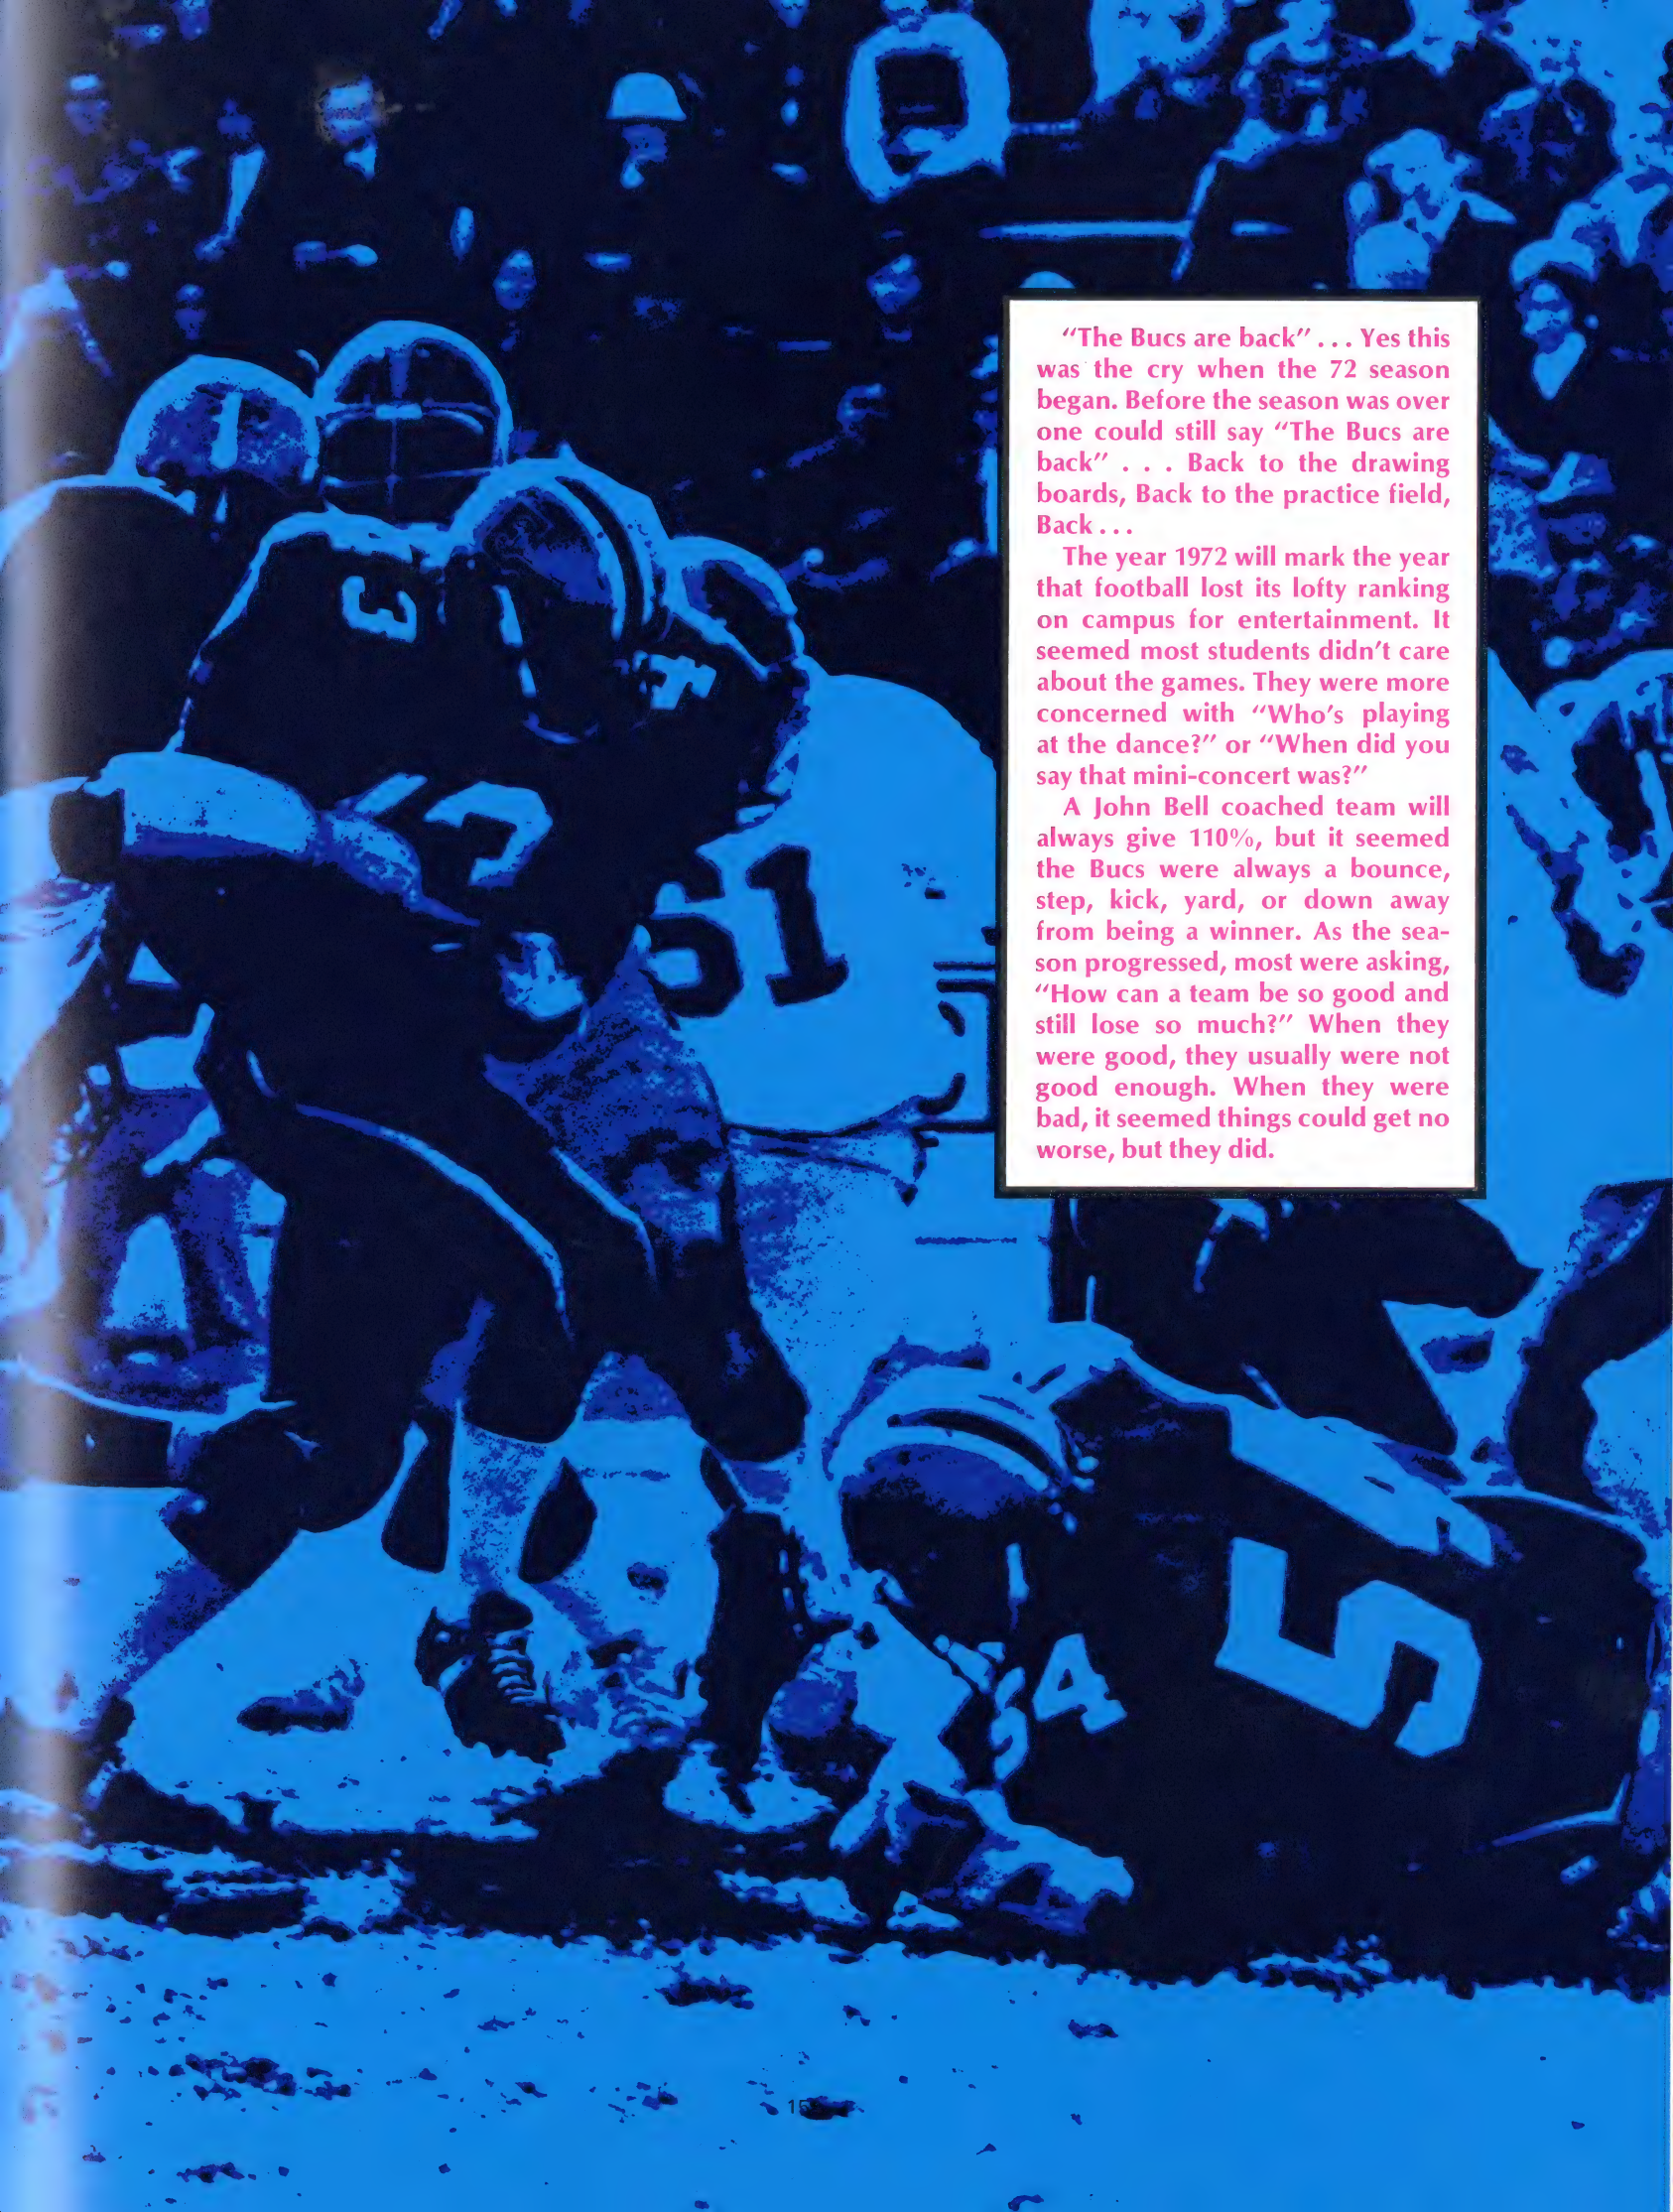

Tennis . . .

To many who have not ever played tennis the game often appears a simple process of knocking the ball back and forth across the net. Those who have played realize what a tough and demanding sport tennis really is. Lenny Simpson is still around, but somehow it just isn't the same with him as coach instead of playing number one. Last season was disappointing, but with Lenny now as coach hope for our tennis program is now in sight.

"The Bucs are back" . . . Yes this was the cry when the 72 season began. Before the season was over one could still say "The Bucs are back" . . . Back to the drawing boards, Back to the practice field, Back . . .

The year 1972 will mark the year that football lost its lofty ranking on campus for entertainment. It seemed most students didn't care about the games. They were more concerned with "Who's playing at the dance?" or "When did you say that mini-concert was?"

A John Bell coached team will always give 110%, but it seemed the Bucs were always a bounce, step, kick, yard, or down away from being a winner. As the season progressed, most were asking, "How can a team be so good and still lose so much?" When they were good, they usually were not good enough. When they were bad, it seemed things could get no worse, but they did.

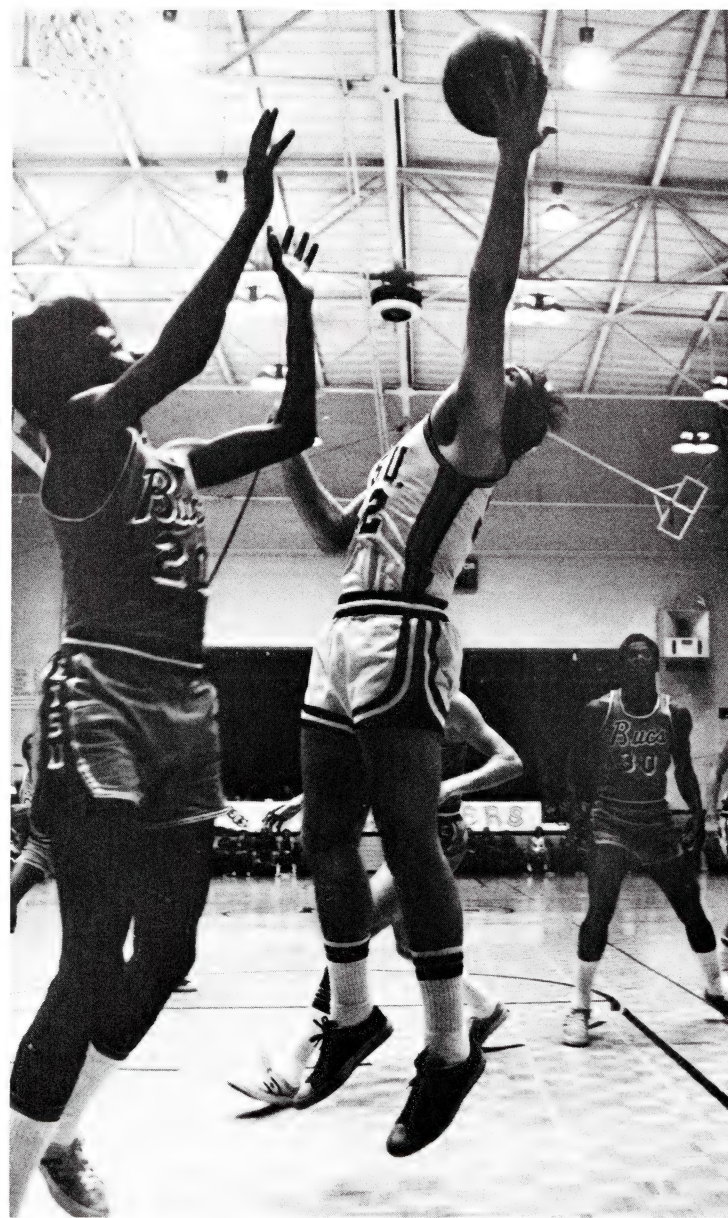

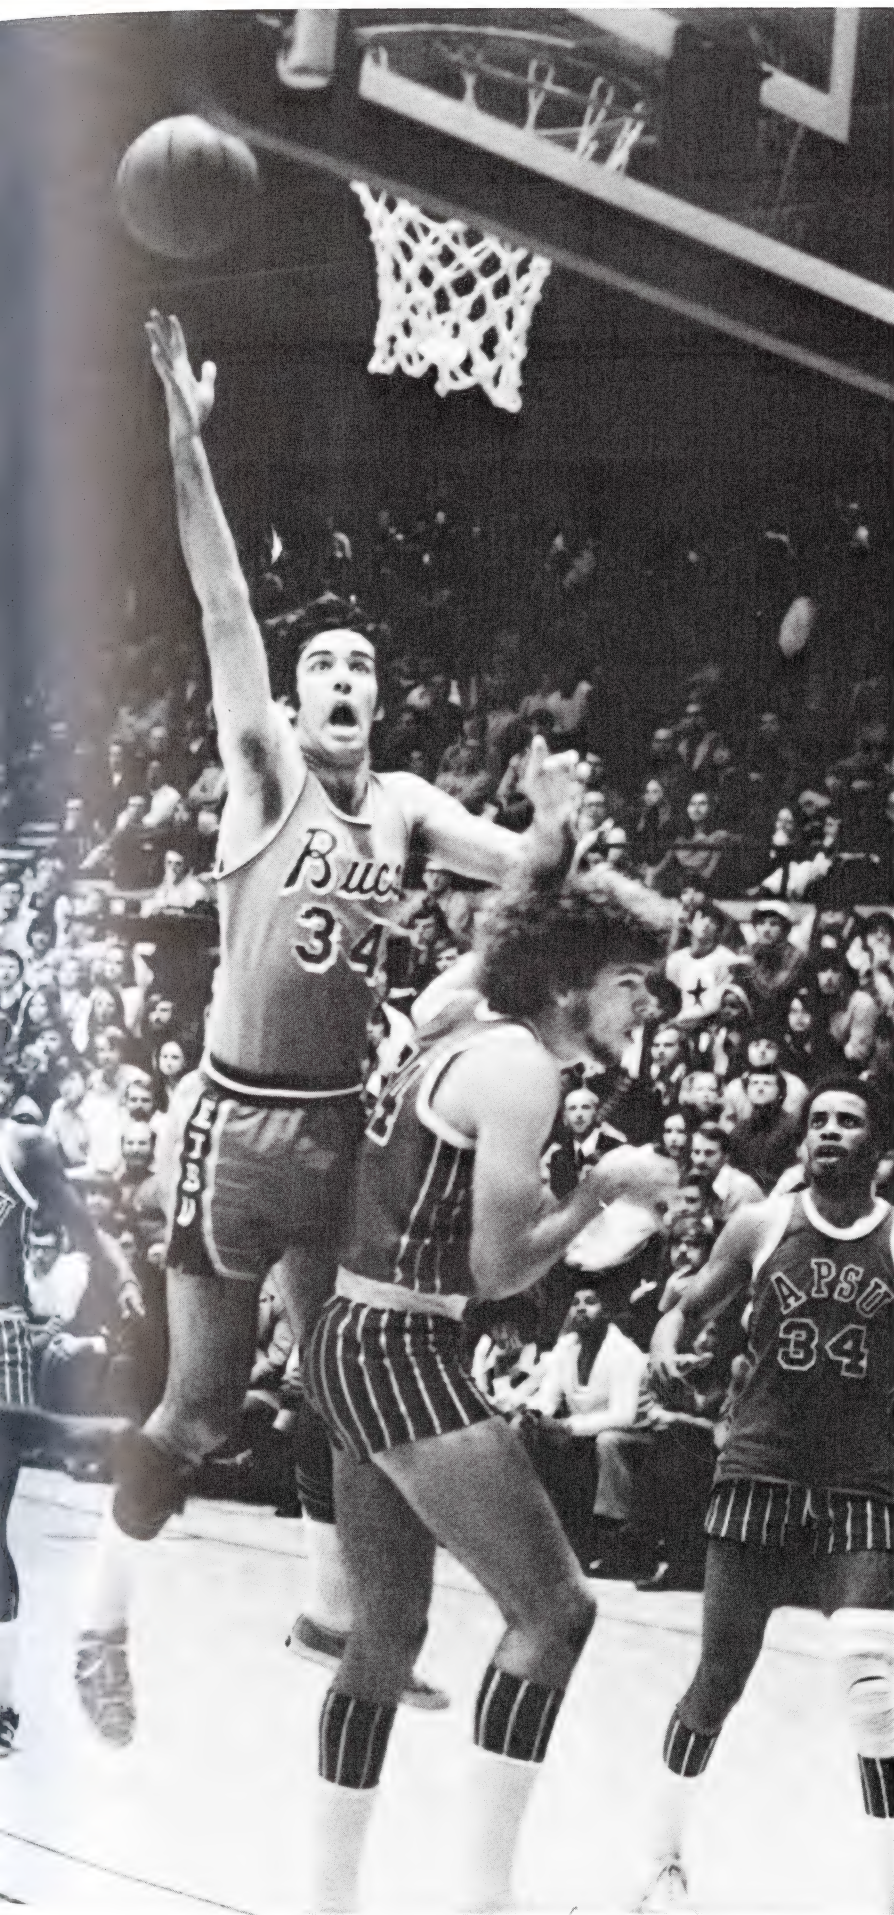

Basketball . . .

An early season winning streak of six games gave Buc hardwood fans hope for the upcoming conference schedule. This hope quickly proved false as the Bucs lost ten conference games in a row. There must be a difference, there is a difference in playing O.V.C. competition and the likes of Stetson or Rollins. Henry White, without a doubt the best prospect for this season, sat out almost the entire campaign with an injury. With White out of the lineup the burden of carrying the Bucs fell upon the shoulders of Ron Mitchell and John Barrett. With some aggressive recruiting by the Buc coaching staff, the hope is that by next year we will once again be comparable to the tough competition in the O.V.C.

Cross Country . . .

When the major sports faltered on campus, everyone began to search for a winner elsewhere. A winner is what they found in the Cross Country Team. They won the Conference Title, took top honors in the region, and came in a very close second in the NCAA Meet in Houston. They not only had the NCAA individual champion in Neil Cusack, but had three runners receive All-American status. Three cheers for coach Dave Walker and the Irish Brigade.

Intramurals

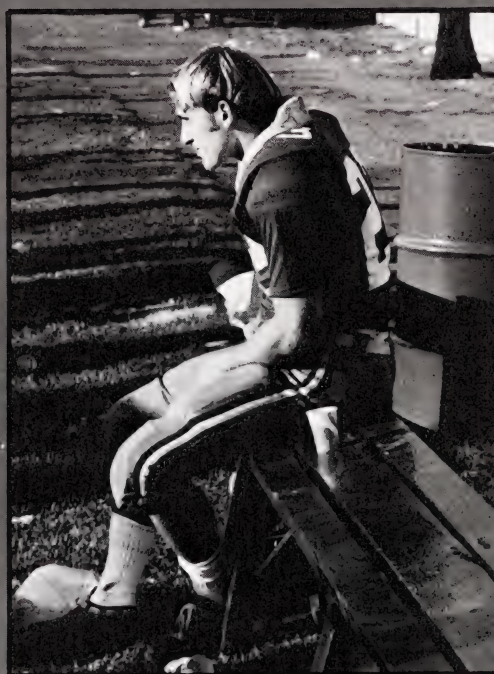

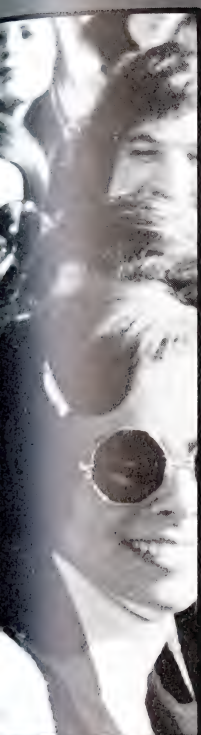

Without a doubt this is the most popular sports program on campus. Close to 75% of the student body participates in some phase of the intramural program. An extra special thanks should be extended to Coach Joyce for trying to make our intramural program one that we can be proud of and want to participate in. If our intercollegiate teams are not worth watching, we can at least find solace in playing the various sports ourselves.

Too often we view sports as something for jocks only, but there is a place in sports for everyone whether you are black or white, freak or frat, male or female.

Recipient Distinguish

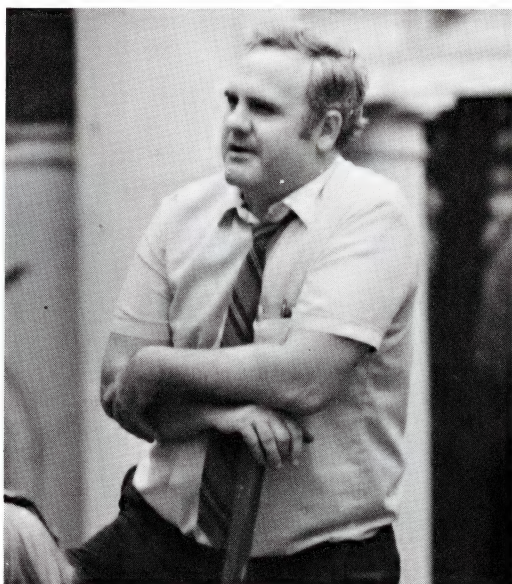

Let's put down our books for a while and go outside and talk about literature with Jack Higgs. Let's see if we can't make dry, printed words come to life and say something to us that makes the reality we live just a little clearer and easier to understand.

He is the teacher and we are the students or that is the way it is supposed to be, but Dr. Higgs . . . he makes us feel like we are all students. The world is just a big university, and what men do and say are the things we write about. And these things make up a giant text from which we must learn.

What were students NE doing on campus Friday afternoon when the birds were out during a major snow storm?

They often take the same path. McCann had been taking his dog out, watching the Friday night performance at an hour of rain, as McCann half-remembered that his going to the children's garden, watching the dance of campus and some other of working a term paper in the school library.

The person responsible for the robbery had a long record in the prison, with the first time he was caught in 1929 and the last in 1934.

PAPERBACK

The trouble is, however, that the knowledge can only be a matter of confidence. A confidence in what is not directly at the Physical Plane at P-134. We cannot describe the cause of the failure because the situation at the time destroyed the electron cable leaving no evidence from which an explanation could have been made. We were not prepared.

In the Roberts' case, the physician's role in the failure was almost likely due to an administrative error at the time of the case. Although it would be a future failure of knowledge in determining the cause and treatment of the child, and a lower failure than what occurred in the previous case, it is still a failure.

It is difficult to identify causes for the failure that have been considered by other researchers in the study of the case, but no evidence is available to support any of the theories.

The last major sewer system renovation took place in 1960, and we gained at least three more sewer inlets on the basis of that. These are the current state-of-the-art, in addition to several existing lines of major importance. All sewer problems have occurred in the same old section, central city.

As the Sunlight and Heat of the Day was increased, the heat of the Sunlight and Heat of the Day was increased, the heat of the Sunlight and Heat of the Day was increased.

The planning team, now both approved and larger, and Stanley, the consulting architect of choice, have been chosen to begin the designing of a new building system, present and future capable of

We wanted to pull her around, so she let me further to meet the people, as she said, the university people, and we had like a party, a party, and they had a party, and I said, "I'm going to be a doctor, and I'm going to be a doctor."

It is on this ground that the present inquiry has sought to produce estimates of the type and level of institutional response. We would like to identify the last failure occurred in a university, at a time when the operation of the university was not seriously affected, although it did mean we had to pay overtime to students, to see whether the aim of this inquiry, to have been external, such problems as a matter of course.

The present power system was inherited and continued with all its building regulations at the time of its construction, so we have to consider present Chinese engineering as a factor in the cause of the power problems.

The project will first consist of the new pricing system and the new proposals will be submitted for approval to the State Board of Accountancy and the State Planning Commission some time soon after the first of next year. Once approved by the state legislature, it will be implemented by the Department of Transportation.

to solve the book's "contradiction". It was the same philosophy that the library power faced at the same time as the major power failure. The library failure was due to a completely different problem within the library power system itself, and could have occurred regardless of the major problem. The library had recurrent power difficulties of its own, and these are to be mentioned, to provide the complete system.

The E.T.M. campaign was a last-ditch effort to get last-minute support for the measure described on the page. It involved many phone calls, door-to-door work, and a number of large meetings, including one at the state capitol building.

HOT WATER
Be Sure and be Careful about Hot water.
When water is not used the HOT water leaks into COLD water lines. Let cold water run for a few minutes &
it will cool.

wanted in and repeat

When your future's on the line, use your pen to better advantage than for circling through the classified sections. Drop us a note instead and tell us why you think you would like to work for a $160,000,000 fiber and textile company that has grown 11th in the past year. And has plans to do a lot more growing with guys like you in key positions. In research. In engineering. In design. In merchandising. In sales. In areas both challenging and rewarding. So if you want to leave your mark on the textiles/fibers world, write us first. It's a lot better way to do it than leaving your mark on the help wanted ads.
